ANNUAL OUTING OF STORE'S EMPLOYES

Fine Dinner and Other Pleasures Afforded Staff of Boston Store at Sacandaga Park.

The annual outing of the employes of the Boston store, held at Sacandaga Park Thursday afternoon and evening was greatly enjoyed by -all the participants, from Proprietor Walsh down to the newest bundle boy. Immediately upon arriving at the park the party proceeded to The Pines, where a bountiful dipner was served by Landlord Bogaski, the menu eing as follows:

Little Neck Clams, Olives Green Turtle Soup Filet D'Soles with Piquant Sauce Julienne Potatoes

Filet of Beef Parisienne

Cardinal Punch Broiled Spring Chicken on Toast French Fried Potatoes New Green Peas Lobster Salad Vanilla Cream Assorted Cakes Saltines Roquefort Cheese Cafe Noir.

William S. Doyle gracefully presided s toastmaster and called upon several of the diners. Francis Kelly was introduced as a possible candidate for supervisor in the fourth ward. Thomas Egan, a former attache of the store. also spoke. Miss Agnes Seward recited "The Hero and the Herpine," and Miss Katherine Farrell gave "A Scene on a Battlefield." Miss Nellie O'Connell responded with bits at varous associates in the store and Ralph Roberson concluded the post prandial with interesting remarks concerning the success of the establishment. The various pleasures of the park were enjoyed, including an evening vist to the Rustic theater, and shortly before 9 o'clock the party, numbering about twenty-five, left for home, delighted with the entertainment afforded by the management,

The tour was from Lacrosse to Lancaster, to distance of about one hundred and twenty-eight miles. The cars were somewhat delayed at the start. Early reports were to the effect that Strang was going along at a good speed, when, in endeavoring to avoid collision with a passing team, the car plunged over an embankment, pinning Strang to the ground.

Later advices, however, indicate that the car was running only about four miles an hour and the team was going in the same direction. Strang turned aside, but the bank at the roadside suddenly gave way. The car slid down the embankment, turning turtle, and Strang, reluctant to jump, went to his

TODAY IN WALL STREET.

New York, July 21.-Wall Street, 10:10 a. m., July 21-Small gains were made in many of the active stocks at the opening today, but heaviness in Reading and the Copper shares gave the list an appearance of irregularity. The local traction securities held steady. The Hill stocks made further gains. Great Northern preferred advanced 11/2 and Northern Pacific 1/4.. Canadian-Pacific rose 11/4

Noon.-The market was less disturbed today than yesterday over the outcome of the local traction issues After an irregular opening prices held fairly steady on a higher range, with the Hill and Canadian stocks chief gainers. Canadian Pacific once more made a high record, touching 247. The bond market was quiet and firm.

2 p. m .- A few issues lost ground in the afternoon, but the market as-a whole held firm. Canadian Pacific sold at more than a point below its high price of the day.

HAVING GREAT TIME Boys Encamped at Sacandaga Park Enjoy Pleasures of Out Door Life

Jacob Mann, commanding the colopany of St. Mary's cadets now enjoying camp life and maneuvres at Sacandaga Park came to Amsterdam this afternoon with Lewis Fraser of West Main street. The boy had eaten unwisely of choke cherries, with the result that frequently ensues. Last night he received the attention of Dr. Roberts of Northville and while greatly improved this morning it was thought advisible to bring him home. Mr. Mann reported that the youngs readily to the necessary discipline. to Northville and return and Saturday there will be a sham battle. Sunday, the company will give an exhibition drill. The youths are given plenty of freedom, that is within reasonable limits and eat with savage appetites the three meals which are set before them each day. The weather has been excellent for camping and every boy will be returned home increased in weight at least six pounds, so it is
