FANS WANT BOUT BETWEEN FULTON AND DEMPSEY

Then Let Winner of This Mill Clash With Jess Willard.

Followers of Boxing Are Peeved at Conflicting Reports of Bout.

New York, March 15.- "Match Fred Fulton and Jack Dempsey and let the winner have Willard for the

This is the attitude of boxing fans throughout the country to-day, since interest in the heavyweights has been revived.

Conflicting reports of matches in the making are getting on the nerves of the boxing public. Representatives of Fulton and Willard met yesterday and failed to make a match, it would appear, should jump at the chance.

Fight fans would like to see som promoter make a match that will stick. They are weary of camouflaged matches. Prospects for a title battle this year have payed the way for a prosperous period for the boxing game and the heavyweights have suddenly come to life. If boxers and promoters are wise they will not pass up the opportunity.

Willard and Fulian have been ten-Willard and Fulion have been tenintively matched in both New Orleans and Oklahoma. Fulton and Dempsey are matched by a New Jersey promoter, perhaps. The consensus of opinion indicates that the public believes Dempsey should have his chance and there is no good argument against it. Dempsey cortainly ment against it. Dempsey certainly deserves a crack at Fulton in prefer-ence to the Frank Morans and Tom Cowlers.

SYRACUSE AND PENN FIVES PRIMED FOR GREAT STRUGGLE HILL GYM IU-NIGH

Nearly 3,000 Expected to See Important Contest—Tom Thorp and Carl Reed Will Be Officials.

With both teams primed for the clash, the basketball quintets of Syracuse university and the University of Pennsylvania will battle for honors in the Archbold gymnasium at 8 o'clock to-night.

Both teams have wonderful records on the court this season. Syracusans have won sixteen straight games and have not suffered a defeat. The Quakers have won sixteen out of eighteen games and have already won the champlouship of the Intercollegiate league. The two teams which have defeated Penn this season are Syracuse and Princeton, the Orange band winning after a hard fought battle at Philadelphia the last week in January while Princeton won from the Pennsylvanians last week at Princeton. Earlier in the season the Red and Blue five handed the Princetonians a beating.

QUAKERS OUT FOR REVENGE.

The Quakers have come to this city to get revenge for the defeat in January by Eddle Dollard's basket tossers and Ceach Lon Jourdet has informed the supporters of the Red and Blue quintet that the Syracusans will be downed to-night. Jourdet will have his strongest team on the floor freent seasons show that not more in Stannard and Swengey at the forward positions. Dollard will use John Cronauer and Charley Dolley as forwards, Capt. Joe Schwarzer at center and Johnny Barsha and Bob Marcus as suards to-night. This is the same combination that has won sixteen straight games for the hill five. The Syracusans have got in an extra amount of practice for the final struggle of the season and both the coach and players feel confident of taking the Red and Blue hand into camp. However, they all realize that the local players will have to show their very best to be on the long end of the score.

The Pennsylvania basketball authorities have agreed to have Tom Thorp of Columbia referee and Carl Reed of Wesleyan umpire the contest. For a time the Penn officials objected to having Thorp be the chief handler of the battle but last night a telegram was received here which said that Thorp would be satisfactory.

Nearly three thousand persons are expected to witness the court contest. Extra bleachers have been placed on the floor and the seats have been moved back a short distance so as to allow more persons to see the tilt.
