The grand stands where the guests of the day are to be seated have been elaborately decorated. Other attractive flags and banners have been placed over the entire field. W. H. Watkins has taken a keen personal interest in the plans of Will H. Brown, vice president of the Overland Company, and has thrown wide his office and park so the holiday merry-makers can have the "time of their lives."

"Yells," songs and all manner of schemes and noise-making devices have been made and will be given a strenuous test tomorrow afternoon. John N. Willy, president of the Overland Company, is expected to be here from Toledo.

PLAN STRAIGHTAWAY RACES.

Atlanta Speedway Promoters Ask for Sanction of A. A. A.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 27.—In connection with the Atlanta Speedway races next week the Atlanta Automobile Association is planning to hold a series of time trials on a straightaway course with the expectation of establishing a new world's record for one mile. The contest board of the American Automobile Association tonight was asked by wire to sanction the contests. It is planned to have the trials on the College Park-Hapeville road, which the officials of the local association believe will prove faster than the beach at Daytona. If the sanction is secured it is announced that De Palma will drive the 100 Fiat.

Many of the best-known foreign drivers will participate in the Speedway races next week. Monday and Tuesday will be devoted to aviation.

WILL BOX AT TERRE HAUTE.

Jimmy Watts Meets "Kid" Herman of That City Tomorrow.

Jimmy Watts of this city and Young Kid Hermann of Terre Haute, bantamweights, will meet tomorrow night in a ten-round contest for the bantamweight championship of Indiana. The boys will box at 115 pounds before the Eagles Athletic Association of Terre Haute. Herman is one of the fastest little bantams in the middle West and recently returned from a successful invasion of the South.

Jimmy has fully recovered from an injured ear and says that he will be in better shape than when he entered the ring out of condition several weeks ago at Newport, Ky., when he boxed Johnny Albanese. The winner of this match will meet Albanese in Terre Haute in two weeks.
