

...d brown passementerie, and the satin set in brown bone and of the simulated but-soutache. Another smart smoke gray rubberized silk, enveloping, buttoning closely neck with a wide turn-over with red leather, the fronts with buttons of the silk set in

...1 kindred weaves have made a bound in popularity of late. We have had rajah in many shades, but the manufacturer experimented with this rich, king weave that today we have variety, including scores of patterns. The checks, plaids, es and rings for which there is a craze, are likewise pro- rajah and similar weaves. The season are presenting much smooth surface than heretofore rough surface after wearing h soil very readily, and catch Some very attractive rajah shown in dark colors, richly in colors are also displayed and collar trimmed in contrast-

Circular Wraps Appeal.

...wraps of rajah with deep cape andarin sleeves are very smart. Tourists' cloaking is an-ic which has been introduced sts' wear. These fabrics are ly in checks of unobtrusive of a shade which does not dust. If anything, the fabric at heavier than any shown for sons. The regular ulster pat- isable for a coat made from this All the late models have im- ets, something which has been t useful for motor traveling. od motor material is Shelma will not shrink, is dust-shed- does not wrinkle; it makes coats both for appearance and

...son motor hats are the pret- Dame Fashion has created, and usive shops Milady Mobile can d a chapeau that frames her becomingly. One of the pret- ; the motor models is the Char-

ORGANIZATION HELPS AUTOMOBILE INTERESTS

With A. A. A. as Central Body, Nearly All States Have Separate Clubs.

The automobile interests are guarded by one of the best systems of organizations of anything on earth. The American Automobile Association is the hub. Every state has its own separate clubs, all affiliated with this one big center. Sanction is obtained from the A. A. A., which makes all races, hill climbs and endurance runs official.

The officers of the A. A. A. are:

President, Lewis R. Speare, Boston; second vice president, Ira M. Cobe, Chicago; third vice president, Frank M. Joyce, Minneapolis; treasurer, H. A. Bonnell, Newton, N. J.; secretary, Frederick H. Elliott, New York.

The members of the executive board are:

Lewis R. Speare, chairman; S. A. Miles, William E. Metzger, Alfred Reeves, Robert P. Hooper, Edwin S. George, Paul C. Wolff, Frank G. Webb, J. P. Coghlin, James T. Drought, L. J. Powers Jr., Charles Thaddeus Terry, Frank B. Hower, H. O. Smith, Indianapolis; E. P. Chalfant, Oliver A. Quayle, W. C. Crosby, C. H. Gillette, Frank M. Joyce, John Bancroft, H. A. Bonnell, L. E. Myers, H. M. Rowe, George C. Diehl, Powell Evans, Frederick H. Elliott.

Chairmen of Boards—Charles Thaddeus Terry, New York, legislative board; Frank B. Hower, Buffalo, contest board; George C. Diehl, Buffalo, good roads board; Powell Evans, Philadelphia, touring information board.

Indiana Officials.

Edgar Apperson of Kokomo, Ind., is the secretary of the Indiana State Automobile Association. W. P. Haughton of Richmond is the secretary of the Automobile Club of Wayne County, T. J. McElheny of Logansport, Ind., is the secretary of the Cass County Automobile Club, L. P. Hardy of Terre Haute is secretary of the South Bend Automobile Club and Frank Willis of this city is secretary of the Indiana Automobile Club.

The following states have several automobile clubs:

Georgia, 1; Illinois, 10; Iowa, 4; Kentucky, 4; Louisiana, 1; Maryland, 11; Alabama, 1; Arkansas, 8; Arizona, 1; California, 2; Colorado, 4; Connecticut, 8; Delaware, 1; Washington, D. C., 2; Florida, 4; Massachusetts, 10; Michigan, 7; Minnesota, 19; Mississippi, 1; Missouri, 1; New Jersey, 16; New York, 57; Ohio, 11; Oklahoma, 1; Oregon, 1; Pennsylvania, 29; Rhode Island, 1; South Dakota, 4; Tennessee, 5; Texas, 3; Utah, 1; Vermont, 1; Virginia, 3; West Virginia, 3; Wisconsin, 7.

DRIVERS OBEY FLAG SIGNALS

Dare-Devil Auto Racers Receive Instructions From Banners.

The Indianapolis motor since has been termed the 'America.' This name is appropriate by men who h performances on both tracks, spects the local course is g being superior to its duplic waters. The British track older, and the subsequent development in variety of e on this track is of a large the local one. The follow J. P. Holland in this month typical pen picture of wha in the motor family are br in the land of John Bull:

"The County of Surrey, E plies a unique position in British motordom. Its fan motorist magistracy makes be avoided by the motorists avoid the plague, yet on th it is the natural mecca of motor sport, by reason of the most complete track in motor racing, at Brooklan this track means running mile after mile of hidden with the certainty of conv event of any officious poll your number.

"To give a comparison great track at Brooklands of its kind in America, I sh a three-mile stretch of beach when the tide is ou mous sand is smooth and ha Double this stretch up, r into an irregular pear-sha ends of the ribbon curling on the outer edge in the tw Smooth out a piece of land est bit of scenery in New E lazy-winding little river ma across meadows and a slope furnishing the backg picture. Take the three-r track, lay it carefully on space, even digging into th wooded hill to allow room f end of the loop. Stretch a of ribbon from the point w of the pear begin to conver it sash-fashion to the sp emerges from behind the l have the famous Brooklan racing track of Weybridge, land.

Offer Long Stretc

"The length of one lap is two and eleven-sixteenths n accurate, 2.76687774 miles, w all there would be left of t stretch of beach after 'allow lngs.'" But including the c stretch, the circuit comple upon three and a quarter m

"In the maintenance of mgtdrome a small army o constantly employed. The built on the estate of H. F from whose residence, 'Br track takes its name. To r from the high road after the satin set in brown tone and of the simulated button-soutache. Another smart smoke gray rubberized silk enveloping, buttoning closely neck with a wide turn-over with red leather, the frosts with buttons of the silk set in kindred weaves have made a bound in popularity of late. We have had rajah in many shades, but the manufacturer experimented with this rich, king weave that today we have variety, including scores of patterns. The checks, plaids, bands and rings for which there is a craze, are likewise profuse and similar weaves. The season are presenting much smoother surface than heretofore, rough surface after wearing on soil very readily, and catch Some very attractive rajah shown in dark colors, richly in colors are also displayed and collar trimmed in contrast-

THE

ular Wraps Appeal.

wraps of rajah with deep cape and ardin sleeves are very smart. Tourists' cloaking is music which has been introduced in its wear. These fabrics are ly in checks of unobtrusive d of a shade which does not dust. If anything, the fabric is heavier than any shown for sons. The regular ulster patternable for a coat made from this. All the late models have im- ets, something which has been t useful for motor traveling. od motor material is Shelma will not shrink, is dust-shed- does not wrinkle; it makes ats both for appearance and son motor hats are the pret- ame Fashion has created, and usive shops Milady Mobile can l a chapeau that frames her ecomingly. One of the pret- the motor models is the Char-

ORGANIZATION HELPS AUTOMOBILE INTERESTS

With A. A. A. as Central Body, Nearly All States Have Separate Clubs.

The automobile interests are guarded by one of the best systems of organizations of anything on earth. The American Automobile Association is the hub. Every state has its own separate clubs, all affiliated with this one big center. Sanction is obtained from the A. A. A., which makes all races, hill climbs and endurance runs official.

The officers of the A. A. A. are: President, Lewis R. Spear, Boston; second vice president, Ira M. Cobe, Chicago; third vice president, Frank M. Joyce, Minneapolis; treasurer, H. A. Bonnell, Newton, N. J.; secretary, Frederick H. Elliott, New York.

The members of the executive board are: Lewis R. Spear, chairman; S. A. Miles, William E. Metzger, Alfred Reeves, Robert P. Hooper, Edwin S. George, Paul C. Wolff, Frank G. Webb, J. P. Corhill, James T. Drought, L. J. Powers Jr., Charles Thaddeus Terry, Frank B. Hower, H. O. Smith, Indianapolis; E. P. Chalfant, Oliver A. Quayle, W. C. Crosby, C. H. Gillette, Frank M. Joyce, John Bancroft, H. A. Bonnell, L. E. Myers, H. M. Rowe, George C. Diehl, Powell Evans, Frederick H. Elliott. Chairmen of Boards—Charles Thaddeus Terry, New York, legislative board; Frank B. Hower, Buffalo, contest board; George C. Diehl, Buffalo, good roads board; Powell Evans, Philadelphia, touring information board.

Indiana Officials.

Edgar Apperson of Kokomo, Ind., is the secretary of the Indiana State Automobile Association. W. P. Haughton of Richmond is the secretary of the Automobile Club of Wayne County. T. J. McElhenny of Logansport, Ind., is the secretary of the Cass County Automobile Club, L. P. Hardy of Terre Haute is secretary of the South Bend Automobile Club and Frank Willis of this city is secretary of the Indiana Automobile Club.

The following states have several automobile clubs:

- Georgia, 1; Illinois, 10; Iowa, 4; Kentucky, 4; Louisiana, 1; Maryland, 11; Alabama, 1; Arkansas, 8; Arizona, 1; California, 2; Colorado, 4; Connecticut, 8; Delaware, 1; Washington, D. C., 2; Florida, 4; Massachusetts, 10; Michigan, 7; Minnesota, 19; Mississippi, 1; Missouri, 1; New Jersey, 16; New York, 37; Ohio, 11; Oklahoma, 1; Oregon, 1; Pennsylvania, 29; Rhode Island, 1; South Dakota, 6; Tennessee, 5; Texas, 3; Utah, 1; Vermont, 1; Virginia, 3; West Virginia, 3; Wisconsin, 7.

DRIVERS OBEY FLAG SIGNALS

Dare-Devil Auto Racers Receive Instructions From Banners.

since has been termed the 'America.' This name is appropriate by men who have performed on both tracks, respects the local course is being superior to its duplicate waters. The British track older, and the subsequent development in variety of on this track is of a large the local one. The following J. P. Holland in this month typical pen picture of what in the motor family are brought in the land of John Bull: "The County of Surrey, England, occupies a unique position in British motordom. Its famous motorist magistracy makes it be avoided by the motorists to avoid the plague, yet on this it is the natural mecca of motor sport, by reason of the most complete track in motor racing, at Brooklands. This track means running a mile after mile of hidden with the certainty of any event of any official police your number.

"To give a comparison of a great track at Brooklands of its kind in America, I show a three-mile stretch of beach when the tide is out. The sand is smooth and hard. Double this stretch up, run into an irregular pear-shaped ends of the ribbon curling on the outer edge in the two. Smooth out a piece of land, the best bit of scenery in New England. A lazy winding little river meanders across meadows and a slope furnishing the background picture. Take the three-mile track, lay it carefully on the space, even digging into the wooded hill to allow room for end of the loop. Stretch a ribbon of ribbon from the point where of the pear begin to converge. It sash-fashion to the space. It emerges from behind the land. We have the famous Brooklands racing track of Weybridge, land.

Offer Long Stretch

"The length of one lap is two and eleven-sixteenths miles, accurate, 2.76687774 miles, with all there would be left of the stretch of beach after 'allowings.' But including the circuit stretch, the circuit complete upon three and a quarter miles. "In the maintenance of the motordrome a small army of men is constantly employed. The track is built on the estate of H. F. from whose residence, Brooklands, the track takes its name. To reach from the high road after

THE

