

SILENT STARS SING AERONAUT TO SLEEP

Archangels Watch Over Sky Pilot
as He Saunters Through Stilly Sanctuary.

SPARKLING SPORTOGRAPHS

Silk Hats and Frock Coats
Proper, but Red Ties and Tan
Shoes, Never!

BY MYRON TOWNSEND.

"Heap big balloon" coming to "Injun-apolis" June 5.

Daredevil sky pilots will cut the anchor ropes, "bust out" their ballast and sail
the sapphire seas.

Did you ever boom through the blue of God's great garden above the clouds?

Oh, the awful silence. Not a sound, not a song, not a sight.

Soaring in the limitless ozonic ocean!
Suspended in space! At the mercy of variable winds which blow you hither and yon.

Oh, for the twang of a human voice to soften the stygian gloom.

Or a bird to break the monotony of a dazzling day!

Man, a mere molecule, in a wonderland of nothingness!

Heaven above. Earth below. Between,
the intrepid balloonist swinging, swaying,
swimming for some far off port!

No land scape! No sky scape! No voice scape!

Only an immortal dangling in the vasty deep.

In the grandeur of his citadel of silence his soul swings high, swings low, swings to, swings fro as he sways and swerves

Cricketers P

Philadelphia again is a figure 1 fourteen star men entered in the 1

naively chuckles: "I am pretty well
I-guess I can live without playing Mr. Dreyfuss, will have to come and me."

Ball players are splitting their How they like to have a craftsman a big hole in the bank account of a owner.

Next! Nevada is now in the thro anti-race track and anti-gambling lation. The committee on "public als" is at work.

Reno, Nev., is the one "wide-town.

Let's see! Jeffries carried there hours, didn't he? Owes $5,000 in ers." The big fellow was easy pro the Reno roulette wheel, faro bank poker sharks.

In Tomlinson Hall Saturday night,
Mahmout, the untiring, all-conqu
Turk, will wrestle Leo Pardello.

Mahmout, square wrestler, makes work of the hippodromers. He t grapplers like Beel and Olson in jig
The fact that Mahmout is prac matched with Gotch for a $15,000 adds greatly to the attraction.

Yusiff is a truly international sp character.

SPARKLING SPORTOGRAPHS

Silk Hats and Frock Coats
Proper, but Red Ties and Tan
Shoes, Never!

BY MYRON TOWNSEND.

"Heap big balloon" coming to "Injun-apolis" June 5.

Daredevil sky pilots will cut the anchor ropes, "bust out" their ballast and sail the sapphire seas.

Did you ever boom through the blue of God's great garden above the clouds?

Oh, the awful silence. Not a sound, not a song, not a sight.

Soaring in the limitless ozonic ocean! Suspended in space! At the mercy of variable winds which blow you hither and yon.

Oh, for the twang of a human voice to soften the stygian gloom.

Or a bird to break the monotony of a dazzling day!

Man, a mere molecule, in a wonderland of nothingness!

Heaven above. Earth below. Between, the intrepid balloonist swinging, swaying, swimming for some far off port!

No land scape! No sky scape! No voice scape!

Only an immortal dangling in the vasty deep.

In the grandeur of his citadel of silence his soul swings high, swings low, swings to, swings fro as he sways and swerves like a catboat in a squall.

Sailor, ship ahoy! Throw out the life line.

Save the atmospheric sojourner from landing on a church steeple or sinking in an inland sea.

Silk hats and frock coats are in fashion.

"No sportsman will sally forth Sunday afternoon unless he is sporting a 'igh 'at and a Prince Albert." President-elect Taft tells New Orleans.

In evening dress, no good sport will wear tan shoes or a red tie. Neither will a red-hot "spout" incase his fingers in woolen mittens or carry a bandana handkerchief. Plaid vests are not in good taste.

The color of one's socks is open to question. Unless a "gentleman" is covering his lower extremities with a pair of skin-tight, high-water trousers, he may

Philadelphia again is a figure fourteen star men entered in the naively chuckles: "I am pretty well I guess I can live without playing Mr. Dreyfuss will have to come and see me."

Ball players are splitting their How they like to have a craftsman a big hole in the bank account of a owner.

Next! Nevada is now in the thro anti-race track and anti-gambling lation. The committee on "public als" is at work.

Reno, Nev., is the one "wide-c town.

Let's see! Jeffries carried there a hours, didn't he? Owes $5,000 in n ers." The big fellow was easy pre the Reno roulette wheel, faro bank poker sharks.

In Tomlinson Hall Saturday night, Mahmout, the untiring, all-conqu Turk, will wrestle Leo Pardello.

Mahmout, square wrestler, makes work of the hippodromers. He th grapplers like Beel and Olson in jig. The fact that Mahmout is practi matched with Gotch for a $15,000 adds greatly to the attraction.

Yusiff is a truly international spo character.

"Sunday baseball is not immer illegal," says the Kansas Supreme in a decision which may be as far-r ing as the one in the Dred Scott c Politix is politix. Baseball polit no better or no worse than lawm politics.

Congressmen and senators call other "fat heads." So do baseball nates.

Even dignified and decent p puncture the ether with their pe persiflage.

Frank Chance is to receive $20,0 a short seasons' work. Shake, Fran shaking down the garrulous Murphy

Fred Manity, the Bahama 9 3-5 sp is in New York.

The dusky stranger is built alo