H. O. Smith, who was at Atlanta, Ga., this week looking after the Premier company's exhibit at the big automobile show, returned to Indianapolis today. While the opening events on the new Atlanta speedway and the big automobile exhibit constitute the biggest undertaking ever attempted in an automobile way in the south, Mr. Smith is of the opinion that a mistake has been made in attempting to put on the show and races during the same week. The races, he says, draw people from the exhibit, and owing to their many exciting features it is hard for the motorcar on exhibition to vie with the one in action as an attraction. Many sales have been recorded, however, and it is certain that both show and races will be declared a great success.

Mr. Smith was particularly impressed with the good roads movement recently instituted in the south. Convict labor is at work on many of the highways, which, he says, are being rapidly converted into roads as good as those found in any part of the country. Atlanta is alive with tourists from all parts of the south, who made the journey overland in order to stimulate this movement.
