

Warms Up In Fourth.

as the Vets were concerned the didn't begin to warm up until the inning, when Davidson sent a hot right field and went safely to the sack. Hayden hit to short, but first on Wakefield's error, as also Davidson advanced and scored on a sacrifice hit by Smith. Colts fielded well throughout and McCafferty and Hollingsworth leader on the whole than were the for the Vets. But on account of inability to make more than two out by O'Rourke, the youngsters released early in the game.

The fifth inning Cook drove a liner center and advanced on the pitcher's error following Davidson's out. Carr accepted a base on balls from the pitcher and on a clean hit by Carr left field Cook made home.

The sixth Somer, the former Central outfielder, was given a base on O'Rourke hit through center. The pitcher hit made by the Colts was in the fifth, and also by the new infielder. The length gave the opportunity for the play that brought glory to the pitchers, when McChesney caught a fly on the run from Carr and retched to O'Rourke, to Karl, catching in off second. In the same inning regulars starred with a double, to Winchester to Carr.

AUTO DEALERS BANQUET CHANGE FOOT

"LOVE FEAST" IS ENJOYED COMMITTEE TA

MORE THAN 250 "MOTOR MAD" MEN AMONG OTHERS, FEEL THE CHANGE COUNT ONLY THE STEAD OF F THE I

LAVISH MUTUAL CONGRATULATIONS BECAUSE OF SUCCESSFUL SHOW.

A love feast of automobile dealers was held last night at the Denison Hotel. More than 250 dealers and devotees were seated around the decorated tables. After the supper speeches were made and vaudeville "stunts" enjoyed.

The sentiment of the gathering was mutual congratulations on the success of the show week which closed at midnight. Every dealer present, while very tired from overwork, was in the same proportion extremely happy over the results of the show.

Mayor Bookwalter Speaks.

After the tables had been cleared and the singing and laughing had subsided toastmaster William Brown introduced Mayor Bookwalter.

The mayor made a clever play on automobile words in describing his physical condition and hesitancy to address such an audience. He traced the development of the motor business in Indianapolis and was lavish in his praise for the good work being done by the promoters of the industry. He stamped the Hoosier capital as one of the foremost cities in the motor activity.

The Temple Quartet rendered several appropriate selections. It is composed of Homer Van Wie, S. Morris Meck, F. M. Loomis and Oliver Intensee.

A vaudeville company added amusement to the gathering by their local "take offs." The banquet crowd seemed at times more like a gathering of college boys, judging from the happy manner in which they cheered and called to one another and gave "yells" and exclamations of joy.

J. N. Willis of the Overland Company made an address. M. M. Crabill spoke on "Good Roads." Other short talks were called for from different diners.

YANNIGAN'S BEAT SEALS AT EVERY STAGE OF GAME

NEW YORK, March 10.—A change in the football intercollegiate football committee, which completed Murray Hill Hotel today.

of points for a goal four to three. The official it is said, was to prevent the field counting more touchdowns and goal.

Commenting on this the committee said that the importance on team kickers. Another change was one designed to prevent inflicting penalties, which have been incurred by one player, by giving the option of saying which was proposed.

A change was made relating to a touchback. Some of the hardship under its own goal, has been forced there rushing. The new rule making the touchback the kick, while the old the option of kicking the ball for a scrimmage.

A rule was adopted after feints or makes pass the ball his team five yards.

New Penalties

Another change reinforcement of penalties provide that no penalty to carry the ball over a touchdown or a safety provided that hereafter immediately stop when the whistle for a foul. The confusion last year in the fact that play was the whistle was blown. No change of momentum relating to the forward but the rule was clear.
