ple to the Speedway and took them away again. Four thousand and six hundred people drove into the grounds in 2,340 automobiles. About 500 drove out in vehicles. Yesterday's crowd, with those of the two days preceding, makes a total of 75,300 people who witnessed the races during the week. It was estimated last night that the receipts will reach $60,000. At 11:15 the big grand stand, seating 9,500 people, filled. By 1 o'clock it
