

HANDICAP

BARNEY RACES WITHOUT AUTO

Nearly Breaks a Record When Stranger Pushes Revolver Against His Face.

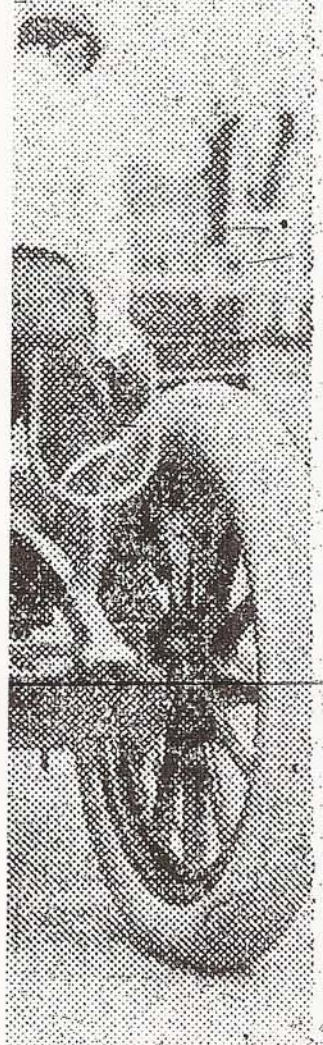

ALL BECAUSE A MAN KICKED HIS DOG "HYPO"

Offender Knocked Down by Oldfield—Sees Weapon and Sprints to Hotel.

Barney Oldfield, who is winning the "Vanderbilt Cup" every evening and two afternoons this week at the Detroit opera house, figured in an up-to-date version of that heart-interest drama, "Love Me, Love My Dog," last evening.

Barney is the proud possessor of a handsome Irish terrier, rejoicing in the name of "Hypo," who shares with the Green Dragon a large portion of the space-amplifier's affections.

Early last evening, Barney, Mrs. Oldfield and Hypo went out for shopping, and when in the vicinity of the hotel were looking for a MILE RACE.

F CHUMPS.

