

Any Kind of Bout.

YORK, July 5.—Like a stern from the years of long ago comes from Thomas J. Sharkey, at one good fighter and at the present proprietor of a prosperous place on 14th street. "There isn't any easier way to get a champion on a bunch of money right now than to beat this fellow Burns for I get a match it would be with the vision that I could get Tim Mc-to train me for it. He's the great-

"I have seen it reported that Burns has cleaned up all of them and thinks of retiring. That's the bunch of nonsense I ever read about him a battle any time. He's just the right size for me. I never had it looked quite as easy as this
