Noted Aviator May Come.

As a special feature of the big automobile meet now planned for October an effort is to be made to have Glenn H. Curtiss appear in Indianapolis with his aeroplane. A cablegram was sent to Rhinebeck last night offering Curtiss a fabulous sum for his services. The American aviator has accomplished wonderful feats with his flying craft across the ocean, having attracted attention in all parts of the world. Along with other celebrities of his class Curtiss would prove a big attraction.

BOWERMAN IN SIGHT.

Backstop to Join Indians Tomorrow.

Frank Bowerman, the backstop of the Indianapolis club, jured some weeks ago to rejoin the Indians at the end of the season. Bowerman sustained a bad cut to his shoulder in a game against a base runner at the plate in his home in Michigan to rejoin the Indians at the end of the season. He is said to be in good condition and ready to help out Howley and Bowlerman and Lemmon in order, there need be no change in the backstopping department. By the way, he is an amateur and has not played baseball there until a few seasons ago. He went to the Kinston Indians and then he has played in the minor leagues. Lemmon, the right fielder, is also due to return to the Indians.
