

INDIANAPOLIS BALLOON BRONSON IN IN LOS ANGELES MEET FOR BOUT W

G. L. BUMBAUGH WILL PILOT AIR CRAFT.

FIFTY-EIGHT AIRSHIPS NAMED LATTER WA

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 23.—The first of the three divisions of the annual aviation events for the aviation meet to be held in Los Angeles from January 1 to 3 were closed last night and a total of fifty-eight airships will compete for prizes aggregating $500,000 to be held today by the Los Angeles chapter of the meet.

The list includes fourteen biplanes, ten monoplanes, four aeroplanes, four gliders, three dirigibles, one dirigible and nine balloons. One of the balloons is entered by G. L. Bumbaugh of Indianapolis.

The president of the Aero Club of America has been authorized by the directors of that governing organization to attend the Los Angeles meet to see for himself that the conditions are favorable and that the money and prize offers are available.

WISCONSIN ATHLETICS NOW IN MUDDLED CONDITION

Athletic Director Quits Because Authorities Do Not Give Proper Support.

MADISON, Wis., December 23.—In disgust at the anti-athletic policy of the University of Wisconsin authorities, athletic director Hutchins, who came here from Syracuse yesterday, resigned and

INDIANAPOLIS BALLOON IN LOS ANGELES MEET

BRONSON IN FOR BOUT W

G. L. BUMBAUGH WILL PILOT AIR CRAFT.

HE WILL MEET AFTER

FIFTY-EIGHT AIRSHIPS NAMED

LATTER HAS

LOS ANGELES, December 21.—Entries in the three divisions of aeronautics and aviation events for the aviation meeting to be held in this city from January 19 to 20 were closed last night and a list of fifty-eight airships which will compete for the prizes aggregating $5000 was announced today by Dick Ferris, general manager of the meet.

The list includes fourteen biplanes, sixteen monoplanes, four aeroplanes, five dirigibles, three ornithopters, one gyroplane and nine balloons. One of the balloons is entered by G. L. Bumbaugh, of Indianapolis.

The president of the Aero Club of America has been authorized by the directors of that governing organization to attend the Los Angeles meet to satisfy himself that the conditions are fully met and that the money and prizes offered are available.

WISCONSIN ATHLETICS NOW IN MUDDLED CONDITION

Athletic Director Quits Because Authorities Do Not Give Proper Support.

MADISON, Wis., December 21.—In disgust at the anti-athletic policy of the University of Wisconsin authorities, athletic director Hutchins, who came here from Syracuse yesterday, returned and

NEW ORLEANS, December 21.—A rival Tuesday of Indianapolis lightweight fought himself into who many believe a chance to fight for a high priced interest in West Side A. C. near Baldwin.

He came from a party by White Plains, known to the fighting Harp, and Indianapolis, who has management of Brown forward to a man Ad Wolgast on the

It was this same within an eye of McFarland out in the bout at the Westside Farland he fought P Van Horn and Jack city.

Bronson is going a hardest man he ever fought. Matty Hadden lightweight is the only no decision contest Tommy Murphy, Alcott and Jimmy King of his victories over Scruggs, Cuddy, Korman, Moody and McFarland a man of unusual recent fight that referee was his draw in spring. He has been and no lightweight more consistent