Milwaukee Falls On Colonels For Double Victory; Phil Douglas Keeps Bruins Safe

Pirates and Browns Take Both Ends of Twin Bills and Climb in Race

MILWAUKEE—Dick Kerr, the Texas iron master, delighted 8,000 Brewer bugs on Sunday by south-pawing the high flying Egans to a double win over Clymer's chesty Colonels.

A trifle off color at the start, the wee Texan grew better as the afternoon lengthened and he was going at such a terrific clip at the finish that but four safe blows were rung up on his off-side shooters in the after noon. Six hits were compiled by the enemy in the opener and they all came in the first four rounds.

CHICAGO—Phil Douglas won his own game here on Sunday by cracking out a single in the seventh inning which sent two runners across the plate. The score was 3 to 2.

The locals were aided by erratic fielding of the visitors. Flack was ordered out of the game for protesting a decision at second base by Umpire Moran. Manager Mitchell also was sent to the clubhouse by Moran's ruling. The score:

Toney, who pitched part of the first contest, essayed to stop the Bezzek men in the afterpiece and was found for hits to all corners of the lot. Nineteen safe wallpops were gathered off his delivery in the second contest.

On Your Mark: Allied Runners Meet In Races Between Turns In Trenches

Soldiers at the front are always ready for a little sport, no matter how long they have been in the trenches or how hard they have been marching or working. This photo, right from the front, shows the start of a footrace between the lines. American runners match their speed against that of their allied comrades. The soldiers are in light clothing, rope off running lanes and race until called back to the serious business of war.

Physical Ed Department At U. W. Offers Wide Field

Since 1911, Coach Tom E. Jones, director of athletics at the University of Wisconsin, has been offering a course in physical education which is practically unrivaled throughout the country. Summer session students have an opportunity to take work under Coach Jones, George S. Lowman and Harry Hindman.

The main object of the school for coaches at Illinois is to train men for athletic work of a limited kind. Dr. J. C. Eison is in charge of these subjects. A special course is given on "The Boy Scout Movement in Theory and Practice."

Coach Jones of the track team will take up the principles of coaching and training and the technique of track and field events. The former consists in instruction and selection, training and conditioning; the theories of training and coaching, regimen for endurance and speed, skill, strength; problems of temperament, climate, weather, traveling, "professionalism," ethics and the technique of officiating. In his course in track and field events, Coach Jones will take up the various events and the rules and duties of officials.

BASEBALL'S CASE CITED BY GARRY

CINCINNATI, O.—Garry Herrmann, chairman of the national baseball commission and president of the Reds, in a statement to President Marshal General Crowder says that if the work or light rule applies to baseball players it will mean 258 players of 309 carried by the sixteen major leagues will be affected.

The cited figures showing that admission for the first month and a half of the season netted the government $85,482.66 in war taxes. He also said officials and stockholders of the club have subscribed to $5,522,450 in Liberty bonds. Herrmann said abandonment of the morale of the fighting men, all of whom scan the sport pages of the newspapers daily.

"After studying the situation," he said, "I do not think baseball will be seriously affected."

BALL PLAYERS RESENT CHARGE AS SLACKERS

Blue Book Shows About 600 in Service; White Sox' Morale Hurt

Professional baseball players as a class are not slackers or unpatriotic because a few of them have created that impression. All Chicago is not populated by thieves and robbers because a certain number of its denizens go out and hold up folks or break into the domiciles of others.

An official list compiled by the Baseball Blue Book from dope furnished by club owners shows 570 names of players in service previous to the latest draft. Since that roster was closed many more have either enlisted or answered the draft call.

Let that 600 wipe out the stain put on baseball by the "Painters' league," as the ball playing employees of the shipyards have come to be known.

Affects White Sox Morale
There is no doubt the patriotic and loyal players feel the stigma put upon them. In the case of the White Sox, the fact three of the world's champions have taken the "safe" first course has affected the spirit and morale of the team more than the actual loss of Jackson, Williams and Lynn would have weakened the Rowland machine if these three had gone into actual service in the army or navy.

They feel that the action of this trio reflects on their own loyalty and its effects have been shown in their playing on the diamond.

The plight of the players who have "enlisted" as shipbuilders will be unenviable after the war. The shipyards then will have no use for them and neither will the baseball public which they deserted.

CHEVROLET IS WINNER IN THE 100-MILE RACE

De Palma Breaks Record in Exhibition; Trouble Keeps Him Out of Derby

Louis Chevrolet in a Frontenac won the 100 mile handicap derby at Speedway park yesterday.

Mufford, also in a Frontenac, was second. Vail, in a Hudson, was third. Hickey was fourth and Oldfield fifth.

Chevrolet's time was 55:25, an average of 108 miles an hour.

Dario Resta, in his new Resta special, won the ten mile Chicago handicap.

Resta, starting from scratch in the first round of the ten mile race, overtook all his competitors and won the heat in 5:54, an average of 101 1/4 miles an hour. Oldfield gave him a stiff battle and finished a close second, with Omar Toti third.

Chevrolet, scratched man in the second heat, staged a hairbrained finish in winning it, catching Dan Hickey within a few feet of the finish line. Tom Alley was third. The time was 5:52, an average of 102 miles an hour.

De Palma Smashes Record
Ralph De Palma smashed the track record for a single two mile lap by circling the course in an exhibition dash in 1:02:41, at the terrific speed of 116 miles an hour.

The previous record was made two years ago by Dario Resta, at 113 miles an hour.

Durray, the European champion, who is here on leave from the French army, was greeted with a yell when he appeared. Resta's new car, painted a dull battleship gray, shared the chief interest of the fans with what is left of Barney Oldfield's erstwhile "Golden Submarine." They provided a grotesque contrast.

Eber Simpson Called "Ace" In Athletics By Writer On Chicago Tribune; Won 7 "Ws"

Badger Athlete Was Star in Three Sports; is in Medical Reserve

[From the Chicago Tribune]
Eber Simpson, Jr., Wisconsin's choice for the conference medal awarded for excellence in athletics and scholarship, has completed his last game under the Cardinal colors and next fall will be enrolled at a medical college in St. Louis, completing his work as a United States medical reserve, preparatory to war service.

When hundreds of Wisconsin men last year joined the colors in the branch or another Simpson was anxious to follow the footsteps of his brother, George, an old Wisconsin football tackle who played on the Camp Custer eleven against Camp Grant at Stagg field Thanksgiving day, only five days after Eber Simpson completely routed University of Chicago in the last game of the Wisconsin schedule on the same field. He was prevailed upon to complete his medical course, however, and this year he won three "Ws" in football, basketball and baseball.

Has Won 7 "Ws"
Many critics placed Simpson on their selections for All-Western teams in each of these sports. Last year Eber won his "Ws" in football and basketball, but the baseball team was disbanded when eight of the regulars left for Fort Sheridan at the close of the spring training trip. In his sophomore year Simpson won his first "Ws" in football and baseball and filled in as substitute on the basketball team.

In addition to his activities on the field Eber has been president of the athletic council of the University of Wisconsin, and, what is more important, has carried on his work in the medical course with an average of 86 per cent for four years. He finished Oshkosh high school in 1914, salutatorian of a large class, after having been a member for four years of the football, basketball, baseball and track teams, each of which he captained before graduation.

Was All-Round Star
Simpson was the only member of the Wisconsin baseball team this spring who had previous varsity experience. Originally a first baseman, he went behind the bat because there was no other man on the squad capable of receiving. Coach Lowman discovered that Simpson was a brilliant pitcher, but could not find a backstop to hold him. Simpson's last games for Wisconsin were played against the University of Chicago at Madison recently. Chicago winning both. "We were out-classed," said Eber, "and the fans knew it. But it is wonderful the way Wisconsin students back up their teams whether they win or lose. I think that spirit is the finest thing I have learned at Wisconsin."

Madison high school will soon have an athletic field of its own if plans of the school board mature into action. The board is, at present, giving careful consideration to the subject.

On East Washington avenue between Blount and Livingston streets is the location contemplated for the new field. The property was given to the city several years ago by Burr Jones to be used for athletic purposes. It embraces six lots with an area of 330 by 165 feet. It has been known as the Burr Jones field.

W. H. Collins, member of the school board, is pushing the plans which include the purchase of additional property from the Cooley estate.

OLYMPIC FLAGS ARE GIVEN OUT
Badgers May Not Get One Because Mucks Competed for the C. A. A.

Flags have been sent out by the American Olympic committee to every athletic club, college, and school that had a representative on the American team at the Olympic games at Stockholm in 1912. The flag is symbolic of efforts to keep sports elevated.

Though "Arle" Mucks is a Badger through and through and has represented the University of Wisconsin in football and field events, Coach Tom Jones does not believe that the university will get one of the flags from the Olympic committee. This is because Mucks went to the games under the colors of the Chicago Athletic association and not of the university.

The flag has a white field, upon which are five interlocking circles in red, green, black, yellow and blue. The circles are symbolic of the Olympic games held at Athens in 1896, Paris in 1900, St. Louis in 1904, London in 1908, and Stockholm in 1912.

Johnny Gold, the star pole vaulter who holds the conference record of 12 feet 8 3/4 inches made in 1913, tried out for the team but didn't make it. He is the best pole vaulter that the Badgers have had.

MARQUETTE STAR ENLISTS
MILWAUKEE—Perry A. Mahoney, former grid star at Marquette academy has enlisted in the navy and is now at his home waiting the call. He enlists as second class seaman at the Great Lakes Training school. Perry also has another brother in service.

CHICAGO — Gil Nichols of New York and George Sargent of Minneapolis, professionals, on Sunday won a Red Cross golf match at the Glen Oak Country club from Jack Hutchinson, Glenview professional, and Kenneth Edwards of the Midway club, Chicago. The cards:

Sargent	Out	4	5	4	5	5	4	4	3	7
Hutchinson	Out	4	5	4	5	4	4	4	3	5

Hutchinson	In	5	3	4	4	4	4	4	4	3
Edwards	In	6	4	4	5	4	4	4	4	3

Best ball card—Nichols and Sargent, 70; Hutchinson and Edwards, 72.
Giant fans have been attracted by the diminutiveness of Kid Caton, the Buccener's shortstop. Caton is the smallest player in the major leagues and beside him men like Rabbit Maravich and Nemo Liebold tower as big men.
