

LOCO OFFICIALS NAME FOUR RACERS IN TRIALS

ROBERTSON AND FLORIDA TO DRIVE IN INDIANA RACE.

CHALMERS CAMP IS READY

For Gamblers.

Word was received yesterday from the Locomobile factory officials at Bridgeport, Conn., to the effect that they had nominated four cars in the automobile club speed carnival to be held on June 18 and 19 over the Crown Point-Lowell course. Two of the machines will compete in the Indiana trophy, or light car event on June 18, while the other two will go after the Cobb cup on June 19. George Robertson, driver of the victorious Locomobile in the Vanderbilt, and Joe Florida will handle the machines.

Official confirmation of the entries will probably be made late to-day. Both Robertson and Florida have been prominent in the motor racing world for several years.

sons. The Loco bookings are also expected to add special interest to the contests.

While the Crown Point-Lowell course will not be ready until next Wednesday many of the concerns interested in the carnival have already begun preparations for the trials. Cars nominated for the contests are either being shipped or are there already, while one training camp has been established and the cars are being turned up for the speed battle.

Chalmers Camp Is Ready.

The first camp to be taken possession of is that of the Chalmers-Detroit company, which has two entries in the Indiana trophy race and which is located at Lowell at the southwestern corner of the course, where the Detroiters have secured a blacksmith shop and a big barn. The camp is in charge of George Bill, who has with him five men, including E. B. Lorimer, who undoubtedly will drive one of the Chalmers-Detroits in the race. Who his mate will be has not been stated. There are four cars in the camp, two of them the racers and the other two reserves.

Lewis Strang and George De Witt, two of the Buick drivers, arrived in Chicago yesterday, prepared to locate on the course and live there from now on until the races. Strang and De Witt have been chasing around the track-racing circuit, but now are ready for the Indiana proposition.

News also came to headquarters that the two Knox cars, which will be driven in the Cobe cup by Denison and Bourque, had been shipped from Wilkes-Barre, Pa., where they competed in the Giant's Despair climb last Monday. It is expected that Denison and Bourque will follow them and arrive some time to-morrow.

Renault Car Due To-Day.

Arthur W. Greiner, the amateur, was expecting to receive his Renault racer to-day, he having been advised that it has been shipped by express from New York city. Greiner has chosen for his mechanic Louis Largeneur, a Frenchman, who rode with Salsz when the latter won the French Grand Prix, and who was in the car with Strang at Savannah last fall. Already at the course are the Fiat, piloted by E. A. Hearne, and one of the Stoddard-Dayton Cobe cup cars. Harry Tillotson of the McDuffee Automobile
