After the contests the Fisher Incline was visited by the crowds and several exhibition climbs enjoyed. Every inter-urban car from the city last night bore homeward hundreds of visitors to tell those less fortunate what a wonderful show Indianapolis exhibited.

INDIANA ATTRACTS AUTOISTS.

Scene of the Cobe Contest Will Be Visited Sunday.

Several local autoists expect to visit Crown Point Sunday. The Chicago devotees are going to invade this Hoosier center and give exhibition runs. According to reports it will not be the fault of the Chicago Automobile Club and its runs and tours committee if all the members are not soon personally acquainted with the eccentricities, delights, fairly long straightaways, fine turnpikes and safe turns of the Crown Point-Lowell racing quadrilateral in Indiana on which the small car and Cobe stock chassis contests will be held in June.

Chairman Ayres of the tours committee has posted a notice calling for a run down into Hoosierland next Sunday. The cavalcade will leave the Plymouth Place clubhouse at 1 o'clock and will be held to a conservative rate of speed by a level-headed pacemaker. The motor cars will spin through the South Chicago-Hammond route to Crown Point. Headquarters there are being established at the Commercial Hotel, which has extended all possible hospitality to the motorists. The whole country side is turning out each Sunday to witness the run around the course.

CUBS WIN FIRST GAME ON GASOLINE CIRCUIT

Little Rock Falls Before Efforts of the Mighty Lundgren and

Overall, 4 to 1. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., March 26.—Jack O'Connor and his Arkansas travelers failed today in their efforts to win the world's championship from Chicago and the Cubs won their first game on the gasoline circuit 4 to 1. During the early part of the struggle, which was played in a high gale, the travelers bumped Overall good and plenty, but after that, or after the luck had prevented hard drives from going safe, the Cubs made the Little Rocks look like microscopic pebbles and won toying with the enemy.

Overall cut loose in the last two rounds that he officiated and finished with a whirlwind burst of speed that dazzled the bushers and had them running backward toward third base, while his curve ball broke over the plate. Then Lundgren took up the task and pitching in workmanlike manner
