One Diamond Ring-One Gold Watch-oneChest of Silver-and a Valuable Prize Free to Everyone Who Answer This Ad.

This is a Contest of Skill--Not a Game of Chance.

The manufacturers of the famous Jepson Piano want every person in lowa to know and remember their slogan—"Jepson Pianos—Built to Last." They believe that if you merely hear or read this phrase you may forget it, but if you write it you will remember it. Jepson pianos are built to last, and to make you remember this fact and think of their slogan every time you think of a piano, the Jepson Piano Co. will give a Diamond Ring, a Gold Watch, a Chest of Silver and other valuable prizes for writing "Jepson Pianos—Built to Last"—on a regulation postal card. Read every word of this announcement carefully and see how easy it is to win a prize by writing the slogan—

And a Prize for EVERY Answer

Every person who complies with the rules of this contest will receive, absolutely free, their choice of a set of cuff links or a pearl scarf pin, whether they win one of the grand prizes or not. The Jepson Piano Co. wants everyone to become familiar with their pianos, and are willing to pay for this publicity. This is simply their method of advertising, used instead of employing a large force of solicitors to call at your home to tell you about Jepson Pianos.

Contest

Use a regulation Government postal card. Write legibly, the stogan "Jepson Pianos—Built to Last," as many times as you can upon one side of the card, without intercrussing or overlapping. Bring or send your card to the Jepson Piano Co.'s retail store, 413-15 Locust street. Des Molnes, before 6 o'clock p. m. Friday, June 28th. The prizes will be awarded by three disinterested business men of Des Moines and the winters are appropriated by the card of the card ners announced in this paper Sunday, June 28th.
