The "Caretaker" at Navy Cove, Jan. 1910. We were lost to the world here for several days during a hurricane.
