LEXINGTON, Ky., October 5.—The Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association track is literally alive with horses in preparation for the thirty-seventh annual fall meeting, which opened today to continue ten days.

Horsemen by the hundreds are here from all points, and they put in yesterday watching the workouts, visiting the various stables, attending the horse auction of the Kentucky Sales Company at Tattersall's, and in visiting the various breeding farms. The weather is delightfully warm and the track is in superb condition.

The contest will be held under the auspices of the Quaker City Motor Club, and the proceeds from the sale of grand stand seats and other privileges will go to four local charitable institutions.

Semi-Pros and Amateurs

The W. I. Grays will not disband, as was announced, but will play the W. I. Browns next Sunday at Garfield park diamond No. 1. The game will be called at 3.30 and will be the third of a series of three games. Each team has a game to its credit and both will try hard to annex the rub contest.

The W. A. Z's deny being defeated by the Brookside, 6 to 5, but claim that although they were outweighed twenty pounds to the man they defeated the Brookside, 11 to 6. For games with the winners address Glenn Harris, 1329 Reisner street, or call Main 6758.

The Maroons defeated the W. S. A. A.'s, formerly the Rocky Fords, 50 to 0. The winners would like to arrange games with the Military A. A., S. M. B., Shamrocks, Southeastern Juniors, or any other 125-pound team. Call
