PURDUE WINS BALL GAME DEFEATS CHICAGO BY 2 TO 1

BOILER MAKERS TAKE CONTEST IN FINAL SESSION, WILD THROW CAUSING MAROONS TO DROP AN EXCITING CONTEST.

CHICAGO, May 22.—Purdue won the baseball game with the University of Chicago at Marshall Field this afternoon by a score of 2 to 1. The visitors won on a wild throw. After Purdue had been retired in the seventh, Page, first up for Chicago, made his second hit. Cleary was safe on an attempted sacrifice. Sunderland was also safe the same way, the ball getting by Geupel, who was covering first. Page scored on this play. Rowe, next up, bunted and Cleary was caught at the plate a minute later. Chicago losing a fine chance to get away with the game.

Both sides were retired one, two, three in the eighth, the feature of the inning being a spectacular catch by Boltz, Purdue's center fielder. Boltz, first up for Purdue in the ninth, drove a screamer along the first base line. Myers was safe on an attempted sacrifice through an error by Rowe. A minute later Boltz was caught on second; Meyers then stole second and Binder struck out.

In an attempt to catch Myers on second Sunderland missed the throw. Pegues recovered the ball but threw wide to Rowe, allowing Meyers to score the winning run, as the Maroons fled out in
