baseball enthusiasts will have interesting games served up to them by the independent teams. At City Park the Duesseldorfers tackle the fast Taste Tells team. At Brighton Beach the Indianapolis reserves will struggle with the All-Kentuckians and the Commercial League team. Manager Frank Qulessner of Duesseldorfers believes that local patrons of Indianapolis Sunday baseball are good out-of-town teams from Indiana, Kentucky and Ohio. Qulessner's bunch is going after the city championship title and will meet all the best teams for that honor. Manager Rlenhardt is out for the State title and the schedule calls for games which will define his relative strength to the aggregations over the State. It is hoped that both succeed, the one remaining the holder of the State title and the other the rightful possessor of city honors.

However, it is not to be understood that the reserves are the most likely candidates for the State flag nor the Duesseldorfers for the city title. There are many teams, which, from present indications, will make a strong fight for various honors.

Many Fast Local Teams.

There are half a dozen teams which should be contenders for city title as well as for the State championship. The Duesseldorfers and Indianapolis reserves should probably be in the front rank from their years of success, while the Atkins team, champions of the City League for two years, the Y. M. It is planned to open the house with an entertainment which will include feasting and general good time for the members and their friends and an exciting race between two of the best racing boats among the numerous fast craft owned by the club.

The Indiana Motor Club, which includes not only the only motor boat owners in the State, but also many prominent auto-enthusiasts, is planning great things for the coming summer and is confident of making its motor boat races highly entertaining sporting events.

Motor boats are now being manufactured in Indianapolis and shipped to all parts of the country. These boats are annually entered in the various regattas over the country and have usually won a majority of the events under the guidance of local enthusiasts.

Members of the local club who have visited several cities where this sport is nothing new have returned much pleased with the opportunities for promoting the sport in this city. Talking of Jeffries' return there is one man who is from Burbank a tower of strength, is Barney Reynolds, Squires.

When Reynolds was in Los Angeles he was with Jeffries at the O'Brien-Burns night time fight. He is a gentleman from Australia and is a minutes sizer up Jeffries from any possible viewpoint. He is a member of the group who was conversing and he was at Jeffries from the beginning on both sides. This is what he has to say.

"What a clown was Jeffries. The report that Jeffries was and in no shape that man's in spite of his eye is clear, his color is tan and I don't see that he has bulged in such a way as to show a loss of force or slow down. He is a marvelous specimen. You can't angle you look at his face. It is symmetrical and as balanced as a scale. If he can't bring his trim and give as good as he gets, he is himself as ever. I am

The postponement of the championship contest is a 4 suited Squires, who is up in his training, owing to a case of blood poisoning. It is said to be a dye from a new pair of shoes which caused an abrasion on one of the feet and set up an inflammation. It is such that Squires will be unable to work for an entire week.

As might be expected Squires' nationality is being a curiosity there being curiosity in the antipodean championship is what Squires has to say. "I am a native of Ireland and my father and mother were from Maitland. My father was English and my mother was Irish."

Generally there are half a dozen teams more which should be contenders for the city title as well as for the State championship. The Dueseldorfers and Indianapolis Reserves should probably be in the front rank from their years of past success, while the Atkins team, champions of the City League for two seasons, the Y. M. I.s, winners of the title in the Commercial League for two years; the Popes of the City League, the Turner's, second-place team in the Commercial; the Gold Medals, with their ex-league twirler Tomlin; the Dueseldorfers, with their clever fielders and coaching staff of Fiddick, West and Johnson; the White Sox and the A. B. C.s, with their colored sluggers and veteran pitchers, Snow and Talbott, are all to be considered, with the Springdales, Commercial Citys, R. & D.s not far behind.

Laganaur, the Scottsburg boy, the reserves have made a find, as he is doing some wonderful baseball, and Cummings, a real spitball artist, and Naughton (Connington when he loses), and Al Whitridge, form a quintet of twirlers which but few teams in the city can equal. Ludwig and Milam of the Atkins team are both top-notchers in independent circles. Shea is to be mentioned by but few men over the State, and the young Laus and Fender of the seldorfers are, of course, recognized as steady and reliable work.

Over the State the Kokomo-Sharps team is making a great getaway. It won its sixteenth consecutive victory with its victory over Dunkirk. It played one-half, a seventeen-inning game, with the Carmel Clubs and has lost a battle. This is certainly a record and should they keep up their work they will undoubtedly be in for State honors. Their victories over the Dueseldorfers, Portland, Reserves, Hartford and other fast clubs.

However, many of the State teams have not got to going properly yet and undoubtedly be in the field again very fast teams. Frankfort, when it is the hole in the catching department by Johnson, now with South Bend, will be in the running, as it has a good coaching staff. Lebanon, Dunkirk, Hartford, City, Richmond and the Ft. Wayne Trojans can all be relied upon for their teams.

The annual canoe and motor boat regatta of the Indiana Motor Club has come to be a most gorgeous and entertaining event, but this season the club determined to hold these events, motor boat races and water contests of all kinds upon a much grander scale.

The two boats which will compete upon the day of celebration of the opening of the clubhouse will be second to none in the country for power, speed and beauty. The boats are not selected, because there are several in the club which will be candidates for the honors.

Some of the best boats are Carl G. Fisher's Eph IV, Oscar M. Bozart's Gone, Frank J. Barr's Whizzer, B. N. Pierce's Fantine II, Gullford A. Deltch's Highball, J. D. Sullivan's Comet and E. A. Strong's nameless craft. These boats are equipped with the finest motor boat engines and are unequaled for speed, strength, grace and beauty.

The club will hold a meeting next Wednesday night at the Board of Trade hall and will elect officers for the year. At the first meeting of the season, last Friday night, the following directors were chosen, J. D. Sullivan, J. M. Paver, Jr., Bruce Maxwell, W. G. Wall and E. A. Strong.
