was a healthy tone to the market of unusually heavy receipts of hogs. Market was steady with no quotable in prices compared with the close of y. It was noticeable that a large of the buyers—and there was a considerable number of them—were packers. Hogs seemed to have the call to a extent. The market closed with a good ce. In general sales the prices were 7.40 with bulk sales $7.15 and $7.45. from Chicago showed very heavy and the market closed strong, 5 gher than on Saturday. Cattle market was fairly active and all of the buyers were represented. elpts were 800. Few good heavy ere offered and there was not a great for the common grades. Prices eady as compared with the close of k and the clearance was good. Rem- om Chicago were of a steady market elpts 19,000. was no change in the prices in the nd lamb market, the prices of Sat- eing quoted. Spring lambs were at p. fat sheep $8.50, while yearlings 25 down.
