TINGTON REDEEMS ITSELF

Its Wabash by Score of 7 to 4, With Lemon Proving Feature.

WABASH, Ind., July 7.—Huntington, had dropped to third place in the Indiana State League after having first place all season, redeemed itself afternoon by defeating Wabash with the score of 7 to 4. Wabash, which always has had an inning, let Huntington make four in the third inning and could not gain ground lost. The feature of the game was a clean home run by Demon of Wabash carrying the sphere over the fence in a clean and making the tour easily. Few errors and hitting marked the game. Score: Huntington 1 0 4 0 0 0 0 0 2 - 7 Wabash 0 0 0 2 2 0 0 0 0 4 Series—(Huntington) Johnson and (Wabash) Jones, and Lindsey. Attendance—400.

FOR BOAT CRAZE GROWS.

of July Races at Cypress Beach Cause Interest.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., July 7.—A craze for boat racing has hit the towns of northern Indiana, stimulated by the Fourth of July contests held at Cypress Beach on the Ohio River. Preparations are being made to hold another contest this fall, when more than a score of launches will be entered in each contest.

Prizes that will be offered will be given by the motor boat clubs of Evansville, Vincennes and Owensboro, the majority of contestants in the races being from Indianapolis. A special silver trophy will be given by a Dayton (O.) concern. Endurance, long-distance and short-circuit contests are being arranged for.
