ROYAL WELCOME FOR GLIDDEN TOURISTS

Indiana Auto Club Prepared to Entertain Visitors During Stay in Indianapolis.

EXPECT FIRST CAR AT 2 P. M.

Mayor Bookwalter Will Lead Reception Committee to Meet Machines.

The greatest epoch in the auto-history of Indiana will be the passing of the Glidden tour, which arrives at Indianapolis today in its course through the state, which it touches for the first time since its beginning. This great, mad race across the eastern half of the continent has yet produced, which must overcome all the obstacles of nature in its journey, in the premier event of American auto circles, and it was only through the untiring efforts of the Automobile Club of Indiana that the officials of the tour were induced to lay out the path direct through Indiana and Indianapolis.

The Indiana club will entertain the Glidden tourists as the guests of honor during their stay in this city. There will be a reception this afternoon and evening at the rooms of the club in the Hotel Denison for the visitors, members of the club and all auto owners and enthusiasts.

A representative reception committee from the club, headed by Mayor Charles A. Bookwalter, will meet the leading car of the Glidden tour, which is expected to reach the city limits about 2 o'clock this afternoon.

To Escort Glidden Party In.

The reception committee will lunch at the clubrooms at 12 o'clock, and at 12:30, in an imposing array of about twenty machines, will start to Hammond Park, where they will meet the Glidden and his party, which consists of Frank B. Hower, donor of the Hower trophy and chairman of the Glidden tour, and D. H. Lewis, secretary-treasurer of the American Automobile Association; L. E. Myers, Phillip S. Flynn and James B. Dill, members of the touring committee.

The reception committee of the Automobile Club of Indiana will consist of the following men: Mayor Charles A. Bookwalter, Louis F. Lewis, president of the club; Herbert J. ... secretary of the club; H. O. ... R. I. Eads of the Premier, A. C. Newby of the National Motor Vehicle Company, George W. Pangborn, R. H. Brown, H. ... D. B. Sullivan, ... R. ... R. ... Oliver V. Kennedy, H. T. Hearsey, Frank Staley, W. E. ... Frank Moore, H. E. ... Cecil ... Walter and Howard Marmon.

This party will include the owners of the finest machines in the city and the beautiful big cars will make a pretty sight as they come out manfully to usher the great and only Glidden tour into the Hoosier capital for the first time in its history. The parade will include the latest models of the Premier, Standard, Dayton, Dragon, Wayne, American, Marlon, Marmon, White Steamer, Buick, Overland, Lambert, Winton and Haynes cars.

Check In at Denison.

After meeting the leading car, which contains Mr. Glidden and party, the parade will be turned back and will come down Delaware street to the Denison Hotel, where the cars will be checked in from 2 o'clock on. If the machines are checked in early the drivers may see them up in preparation for the morrow, but if they are barely on time they will not be gotten ready until Wednesday morning for the day's journey.

The cars will be taken to the Circle and will be drawn up around the monument, where they will be kept during the night. Six policemen will be on duty all night to prevent any tampering with the mammoth cars.

It will be a unique sight on Wednesday morning to watch the drivers getting their machines ready for the strenuous day's trip. The horseless carriages will be watered, the cans filled with gasoline and everything done by the watchful chauffeur to have the big cars ready to stand all and every unexpected strain and obstacle which it may encounter.

READY FOR DASH TO CAPITAL.

Glidden Tourists Arrive in South Bend in Excellent Condition.
BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.
SOUTH BEND, Ind., July 15.—Glidden tourists arrived in South Bend from Chicago this afternoon in excellent condition for the dash of 147 miles to Indianapolis tomorrow. It is likely that all of the cars will be sent away before 8 o'clock in the morning, as the officials are heeding the protests that are coming in about allowing the tour to develop into a Vanderbilt cup race, which it has amounted to on at least one day since the party left Cleveland. About thirty-five cars still retain perfect scores and some of these are reported to be in bad condition. The going has been hard. The journey today was a particularly rough one, but because the distance was short only a few cars picked up penalties. The Indianapolis contest autos, the Premier touring car and runabout and the Marlon runabout, still have perfect scores.

They went through the mud outside of Chicago nicely in spite of the fact that it was hub deep in places. Only one accident was reported today, an Indianapolis car driven by F. K. Summit going into the ditch in trying to get through a particularly muddy place without chains on the rear wheels. There were two women in the car and, although they were thrown out when the car turned half over, neither was injured.

Reports received tonight from the tourists injured last Thursday are very encouraging. R. O'Connell, who was driving the Pierce car that was wrecked, probably will not be able to walk for six months. Some of his muscles were badly torn. Miss Collins, his sister-in-law, whom it was thought was injured so badly that she could not recover, is getting along nicely and is expected to live. Clark, who was hurt in the wreck of the Packard car, is getting better, but his injuries were very serious.

These injuries have not dampened the ardor of the tourists. They are working like trojans to get perfect scores and each day brings a battle. It looks like ralph tonight and the probability is that there will be some bad roads tomorrow between here and Peru. From there on the roads are so good that a hard rain hardly would affect them.

The route tomorrow lies through Walkerton, Rochester, Plymouth, Peru, Kokomo, Tipton and Noblesville. Stops will necessarily have to be made by some of these towns for gas, oil and water, but the drivers are figuring tonight on going through without any more of a stop than is absolutely necessary. A new Premier arrived tonight to act as one of the pilot cars. It will replace the car that was given a hard drive from Chicago to South Bend today. Both of the Haynes cars have kept up with the procession and have succeeded in registering perfect scores. The allowance of some protests have helped the Premier touring car and one of the Reos.

At a meeting of officials of the tour tonight it was decided that sixteen miles an hour would be the running time tomorrow, The roads between South Bend and Peru, according to a late report tonight, are in miserable condition on account of rains. Nine hours will be all allowed for the trip unless it is found that the roads are too bad, in which case an extra hour will be allowed. Six cars drew penalties today, among them a Thomas flyer, which dropped out while the chances of the Automobile Club of America for a high score.

A Matheson car also dropped out of the tour. The Shoeness car was penalized 11 1/2 points and dropped out of the contest. An irate constable attacked the driver of the American Mors car near LaPorte, Ind., but was called off by a man called to Varney the driver, who allowed down, then stepped to one side and hit the driver on the arm with a club.

CASE OF MIKE KELLEY IS AGAIN PASSED UPON

Ball Player is a Free Agent in So Far as St. Louis is Concerned, Says Commission.

CINCINNATI, O., July 15.—The case of Playing-Manager M. J. Kelley, whose experiences during the last two or three years have included a resort to the Federal Courts and numerous appeals to the National Commission, was again passed on by that baseball supreme court in a decision given out today.

Kelley recited the facts of his removal from a game in the American League in Chicago, the umpire acting on orders from President Ban Johnson, who claimed that Kelley had been reserved by the St. Louis Americans, and that he was further disqualified by the American Association in December, 1906. St. Louis having failed to include Kelley's name in its list of reserved players, the commission, by a majority vote, holds that Kelley is a free agent in so far as the St. Louis claim is concerned.

As to the other claims of the player the commission announces that it has no jurisdiction at this time and could only have jurisdiction on an appeal by the player from the action of the American Association. President Ban Johnson of the American League files a minority report, maintaining the commission can not, under any circumstances, have jurisdiction in the case.
