

HIDDEN TOUR FOR 909 THE LONGEST

Rory of Competition for amous Auto Trophy Shows
This Year's Excels.

Pit GRIND FOR MACHINES

From Detroit, by Way of Denver to Kansas City, Strenuous Ordeal.

Ch BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.
ACROSSE, Wis., July 15.—Every moit in the land knows something at the Glidden tour, that it is an auto-le test run. But few, however, are ainted with what it stands for and its
ory. It has a purpose ie first annual tour of the American omobile Association was held only five ago this summer. The route was New York to St. Louis. The Pur-Exposition was then in progress at Missouri metropolis. This tour was, large extent, a go-as-you-please af-Sixteen machines started from New and were joined by eleven others n New England points.
om Albany to Utica the tourists sufd much trouble from what they called civilized world's worst roads. The e of the tour was by the way of Syra-Rochester, Buffalo, Cleveland, To-Chicago, Springfield, Ill., and St.
At the same time a part of the elers made their way over the national

THE STAR SUM

Amount previously acknowledged Herold and Ethel Justus, 733 P.
Lemonade stand, Talbott avenue,
fourth streets.....
Jewel Rost, 505 North Capitol ave
Primary department of the Sec
George H. Chapman Post, W. R.
Primary department of Mayer Ch
Kathryn Ray and Madeline Hay
Jersey street.....
William Charles Beckwith, Marga with, Martha Kershner and Ashland avenue.....
J. G. K.....
Ruth Pickrell, Frieda Aebker, H
Brubaker, lawn fete on Madis
Total
Total one year ago today..

The lawn fete which was given on M son avenue south of the Belt Rail Thursday night netted $20.15 for The Summer Mission Fund. The money made at the baby show, votes being to determine the most popular baby.
fete was given by Ruth Pickrell, Fr Aebker, Hilda Gerdl, Alvine Windl and Lora Brubaker. The girls were sisted by Mrs. J. M. Pickrell.

Lemonade stands have been pop during the last two days. A stand Ashland avenue yesterday, which conducted by William Charles Beck Margaret Strassler, Mary Kathrine B with, Martha Kershner and Evelyn S ner earned $2.36 for the sick babies.
stand was run all day and was conti
in the evening.

Kathryn Ray and Madeline Hayden a lemonade stand at 2456 North New sey street and earned $3.25 for the f
A stand on Talbott avenue betw Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth st added $1.

Yesterday was a day in which the children helped the less fortunate chil of their age. The primary departmen the Second Presbyterian Church Sun school sent $10 to The Star for the S mer Mission and the primary