he walked. He did not hit safely, but what he did was as good as a batting average.

Slagle's change of pace was too much for the visitors. They refused to become reconciled to it.

The Browns played a dandy fielding game. Davidson pulled off the star stunt when he doubled up Caldwell at first in the ninth after cutting Congalton's fly. It was a swell throw.

It begins to look as though the race was between the Eastern clubs. Milwaukee is the only Western club to show class.

Carr probably will use Eubanks or Druhot today.

We are still hugging Toledo for that top place.

Livingston took three bases on his rap to right in the ninth. Congalton let the ball get away from him and Paddy did not lose any time in getting to third.

Coulter stung the ball to the score board in the third, but was caught in trying to make it a three bagger.

Carr's hit in the first might have been felled by Rhidy. It was a sharp one, however, and few shortstops would have nailed it.

Geyer pitched a good game, but was opposed by just a little better article.

Livingston ran almost to first base to grab Raley's foul in the first.

Carr made a swell fielding play when he knocked down Jackson's rap in the fifth. It stopped a sure triple.
