

...made for securing
the Dominion maintains
of employment bureaus
enters, both for the bene-
of labor and of unemployment.

DOG, FOE THIEVES, IS SLAIN

Guardian of Bert Weiss'
Victim of 'Bullet at Day-
front Yard.

ARE HER SLAYERS

May 11.—Queenie, a prize
ful guardian of the home
was killed by a mysterious
and Mr. Weiss insists that driven away were the ares Queenie died a hero-

for her last week," said
Weiss is a manufacturer
and lives in a brown-
at 259 West 122nd street.
se is a row of five. Mr.
Queenie from puppyhood.
ressive dog was a family
she had by suppression

aid her owner, "used to
the house while we slept.
such a watch kept as

lately thieves have tried
house, but Queenie was
e raised the alarm every
burglars were glad to get
eks ago, at our supper
Queenie barking and look-
e matter was. The front nd the dog was giving a
to whoever had forced

ASK HOLIDAY ON MAY 18 TO VIEW SPEEDWAY RACES

Members of Company Playing at Park Petition Management of Theater for Rest.

HOLD COMET IS EXAMPLE

The members of George Arvine's associate players who are appearing at the Park theater this week in "A House of a Thousand" Candles" have submitted the
following petition to the management.

"To Messrs. Arvine & Benton—
"We, members of the Arvine-Benton
stock company, patient and ever considerate, desire to place before you a formal
petition not yet grown into the proportions of a demand, to wit:

"On May 18, the same being the month
upon which we have just entered, Halley's comet will be in perihelion, with
the automobile races to be held at the Indianapolis Speedway.

"If the creator of the universe has taken the trouble so to arrange the schedule
of the heavenly bodies as to bring his
chief pyrotechnical display in conjunction

with said races; if, we say, Halley's comet
has raced something like 3,000,000,000
miles through unknown space to get in-
to conjunction with said races; if, as we
verily believe, the whole world awaits
with bated breath this unprecedented
speedway event, why should not we mortals show a proper appreciation?
Think of it: The comet, dragging be-

ARMY OFFICER AND MAN SHOT IN SAME

Mystery Surrounds Tragedy
France—Thought It
Murder and Suicide.

GIRL FINDS THEM

PARIS, May 11.—An artillery
Vincennes and his father-in-
found dead in the latter's home
sult, apparently of some mysterious affair that has not yet been
The father-in-law was 68 years

most ill and paralyzed. He had a fortune in his trade as a brewer
spent most of his time in France
in the city in one of his own homes
his wife lived in the country. He had daughters, both of whom were

One of them was the wife of a
captain stationed at Vincennes.
called on his friend's father-in-law
dinner with him. It was during
these friendly visits the tragedy

The officer, it would seem, had centres garrison in the best of the evening and walked part
to his father-in-law's house. On
he was received in the most friendly
and his father-in-law insisted maintaining for dinner. The servant
to purchase certain things, and
the two men, who seemed very
talking together most pleasantly.

Servant Finds Them Dead

Half an hour later, when she
she was horrified to find the officer
in his armchair with a bullet wound

...made for securing
Dominion maintains
of employment bureaus
enters, both for the bene-
of labor and of unemployment.

DOG, FOE THIEVES, IS RECENTLY SLAIN

Guardian of Bert Weiss'
Victim of Bullet at Day-
Mont Yard.

SEEK HER SLAYERS

May 11.—Queenie, a prize
ful guardian of the home
was killed by a mysterious
and Mr. Weiss insists that
driven away were the Queenie died a hero-

for her last week," said
Weiss is a manufacturer
and lives in a brown-
at 259 West 122nd street.
se is a row of five. Mr.
Queenie from puppyhood.
ressive dog was a family
she had an impressive

and her owner, "used to
the house while we slept.
such a watch kept us

lately thieves have tried
house, but Queenie was
e raised the alarm every
burglars were glad to get
eks ago, but our supper
Queenie barking and look-
the matter was. The front
and the dog was giving a
to whoever had forced

ASK HOLIDAY ON MAY 18 TO VIEW SPEEDWAY RACES

Members of Company Playing at Park Petition Management of
Theater for Rest.

HOLD COMET IS EXAMPLE

The members of George Arline's associate players who are appearing at the Park theater this week in "A House of a Thousand Candles" have submitted the
following petition to the management.

"To Messrs. Arline & Benton -
"We, members of the Arline-Benton
stock company, patient and ever consider-
ate, desire to place before you a formal
petition, not yet grown into the pro-
portions of a demand, to wit:

"On May 18, the same being the month
upon which we have just entered, Hal-
ley's comet will be in perihelion with
the automobile races to be held at the Indianapolis Speedway.

"If the creator of the universe has taken the trouble so to arrange the schedule
of the heavenly bodies as to bring his
chief pyrotechnical display in conjunction
with said races; if, we say, Halley's comet
has raced something like 2,000,000,000
miles through unknown space to get in-
to conjunction with said races; if, as we
verily believe, the whole world awaits
with bated breath this unprecedented
speedway event, why should not we mor-
tals show a proper appreciation?
Think of it: The comet, dragging be-

ARMY OFFICER AND MAN SHOT IN SAME PLACE

Mystery Surrounds Tragedy
France—Thought It
Murder and Suicide.

GIRL FINDS THEM

PARIS, May 11.—An artillery
Vincennes and his father-in-
found dead in the latter's home
suit, apparently of some mysteriously affair that has not yet been
The father-in-law was 68 years
most blind and paralyzed. He had
a fortune in his trade as a brewer
spent most of his time in the
in the city in one of his own homes
his wife lived in the country. He had daughters, both of whom were
One of them was the wife of a
captain stationed at Vincennes,
called on his wife's father-in-law
dinner with him. It was during
these friendly visits the tragedy
The officer, it would seem, left Vincennes garrison in the best of
the evening and walked part
to his father-in-law's house. On
he was received in the most friendly
and his father-in-law insisted remaining for dinner. The servant
to purchase certain things, and
the two men, who seemed very
talking together most pleasantly.

Servant Finds Them Dead
Half an hour later, when she
she was horrified to find the officer
in his armchair with a bullet wound

... is a manufacturer...
... and lives in a brown...
... 259 West 122nd street...
... is a row of five. Mr...
... Queenie from puppyhood...
... resive dog was a family...
... she had an impressive

... old her owner, "used to...
... be house while we slept...
... such a watch kept as

... lately thieves have tried...
... house, but Queenie was...
... raised the alarm every...
... burglars were glad to get...
... weeks ago, at our supper...
... Queenie barking and leek...
... the matter was. The front...
... and the dog was giving a...
... x to whoever had forced

... et out into the back yard...
Wolfe Soon Miss Weiss

... he yard and saw the dog...
... rd her. Queenie had let...
... of pain; after that, her...
... de even a whimper, at...
... mortally wounded.

... as deceived by the dog's...
... was a spot of blood on...
... The young woman got a...
... le and washed the wound...
... Net from a revolver had...
... mark, and the dog died...
... ss was seeking the cause

... rched the flats behind the...
... an effort to trace the...
... everybody had heard the...
... e could tell from what...
... llets came.

EN IN FIGHT AUSE OF LOVE

... Cal., May 11—David...
... Otto George, freshmen in...
... were in love with the

... decide, who should claim...
... d to the waist and fought...
... kies in the school base...
... knocked out George in the

... On May 18, the same being the month...
... upon which we have just entered, Hal...
... ey's comet will be in perihelion with...
... the automobile races to be held at the...
... Indianapolis Speedway.

... "If the creator of the universe has tak...
... en the trouble so to arrange the schedule...
... of the heavenly bodies as to bring his...
... chief pyrotechnical display in conjunction...
... with said races; if, we say, Halley's comet...
... has raced something like 3,000,000,000...
... miles through unknown space, to get in...
... to conjunction with said races; if, as we...
... verily believe, the whole world awaits...
... with bated breath this unprecedented...
... speedway event, why should not we mort...
... als show a proper appreciation?"

... Think of it: The comet, dragging be...
... hind it a tail 20,000,000 miles in length...
... to say nothing of losing part of it in the...
... rush deems it none too great an honor...
... to promise a shower of meteors for said...
... speedway races, and here we are, idly...
... whiling away our time with matinees that...
... bring nothing but gross wealth and...
... opulence to the gentlemen, we hereby...
... address.

... "How absurd. Let us rise above the...
... common-place. Let us grasp the psycho...
... logical moment now at hand.

... As to the matinee of May 18, the same...
... being the day of the auto races, we...
... say in chorus, "Cut it out." Think it over...
... Drink it over. Take it to your bed at...
... night and awaken with it in the morn...
... ing. It is worth the worry. As for the...
... undersigned, we remain, as ever, full of...
... hope.

- "Respectively submitted,
- "Harry Preston Coffin."
- "Louise Dunbar."
- "Fay Baker."
- "Frank Jones."
- "Carl Metcalf."
- "Thomas Chatterton."
- "L. Joyner."

... Mr. Arvine's answer to the petition...
... was for the company to wait until May...
... 18, and if the comet hit the earth the...
... matinee for that day would be declared...
... off.

WIFE FOLLOWS MATE

... daughters, both of whom we...
... One of them was the wife of...
... captain stationed at Vincennes...
... called on his ~~mother~~ father in-l...
... dinner with her. It was dur...
... these friendly visits the tragedy

... The officer, it would seem, le...
... cennes garrison in the best o...
... the evening and walked part...
... to his father-in-law's house...
... he was received in the most fr...
... and his father-in-law insisted...
... maining for dinner. The serva...
... to purchase certain things, an...
... the two men, who seemed v...
... talking together most pleasant

Servant Finds Them Dead

... Half an hour later, when sh...
... she was horrified to find the ol...
... in his armchair with a bullet w...
... head, and the officer dead, like...
... on a bed in another room, with...
... at his side from which, as it...
... appeared, three shots had been...
... officer seems to have shot him...
... in the mouth. Various surmise...
... made as to the cause of this app...
... der and suicide, such as a fan...
... over money matters, and also...
... nothing has been established

TAKE CHILLY RID TO COLD BA

Man and Wife Are Imm...
Water After Long...
Whole Village Watche

... WINSTED, Conn., May 11...
... Mrs. William F. Johnston we...
... ing even before they were b...
... Adventists by immersion in...
... berry river. The couple, sea...
... were driven from their home t

... by Henry Westcott, who w...
... pounds. Under the combined...
... horse crawled; the Johnstons v...
... through. The Rev. F. Andrew...
... were horrified there. All t

Wells is a manufacturer
and lives in a brown
at 259 West 122nd street.
use is a row of flats. Mr.
Queenie from puppyhood.
gressive dog was a family
she had an impressive

said her owner, fused to
the house while we slept.
re such a watch kept as

s lately thieves have tried y house, but Queenie was he raised the alarm every
burglars were glad to get
weeks ago, at our supper
Queenie barking and look
the matter was. The front
and the dog was giving a g to whoever had forced

let out into the back yard
Wells. Soon Miss Wells

the yard and saw the dog and her. Queenie had let
of pain; after that her
ade even a whimper, at
mortally wounded

was deceived by the dog's
was a spot of blood on
The young woman got a ide and washed the wound.
bullet from a revolver had
mark, and the dog died.
was seeking the cause

arched the flats behind the
an effort to trace the
everybody had heard the
he could tell from what bullets came.

WOMEN IN FIGHT BECAUSE OF LOVE

May 11, 1910

Wells who showed them
to the water and found in the water. The marked out space in the

portions of a demand, to wit:
"On May 18, the same being the month
upon which we have just entered, Hal-
ley's comet will be in perihelion with
the automobile races to be held at the Indianapolis Speedway.

"If the creator of the universe has tak-
ed the trouble so to arrange the schedule
of the heavenly bodies as to bring his
chief pyrotechnical display in conjunction

with said races; if, we say, Halley's comet
has faced something like 3,000,000,000
miles through unknown space to get in-
to conjunction with said races; if, as we
verily believe, the whole world awaits
with bated breath this unprecedented
speedway event, why should not we mor-
tals show a proper appreciation?"

Think of it: The comet, dragging behind it a tail 20,000,000 miles in length,
to say nothing of losing part of it in the rush down, it none too great an honor
to promise a shower of meteors for said
speedway races, and here we are, idly
whiling away our time with matinees that
bring nothing but gross wealth and
opulence to the gentlemen we hereby
address.

How absurd. Let us rise above the common-place. Let us grasp the psychological moment now at hand.

As to the matinee of May 18, the same
being the day of the auto races, we
say in chorus, "Cut it out." Think it over.
Drink it over. Take it to your bed at night and awaken with it in the morning. It is worth the worry. As for the
undersigned, we remain, as ever, full of
hope.

- "Respectively submitted,
- "Harry Preston Coffin,"
- "Louise Dunbar,"
- "Fay Baker,"
- "Frank Jones,"
- "Carl Metcalf,"
- "Thomas Chatterton,"
- "L. Jager"

Mr. Aglion's answer to the petition for the company to wait until May 18, and if the comet hit the earth the harvest for that day would be declared

WIFE FOLLOWS MATE

his wife lived in the country
daughters, both of whom were
One of them was the wife of
captain stationed at Vincennes
called on his father-in-law
dinner with him. It was during these friendly visits the traged

The officer, it would seem, had Vincennes garrison in the best of
the evening and walked part
to his father-in-law's house.
he was received in the most fr
and his father-in-law insisted making for dinner. The serva
to purchase certain things, and the two men, who seemed to
talking together most pleasant

Servant Finds Them Dead

Half an hour later, when she
she was horrified to find the of
in his armchair with a bullet w
head, and the officer dead, lik
on a bed in another room, wit
at his side from which, as it
appeared, three shots had been
officer seems to have shot him
in the mouth. Various surmise
made as to the cause of this ap der and suicide, such as a for
over money matters, and also
nothing has been established

TAKE CHILLY RID TO COLD BA

Man and Wife Are Injured
Water After Long
Whole Village Watch

WINSTED, Conn., May 11
Mrs. William F. Johnston was ing even before they were Adventurers by intention to berry river. The couple, who were driven from their home
by Henry Westcott, who pursued. Under the combined force of the wind and the
through. The Rev. J. Andrus