servants to a whole lot of trouble because of their coming to stay a week or so.
 "The hostess should make it a plan to enjoy her own social affairs. I always make it a rule, and believe me, I do enjoy them in every sense of the word.
 "I do not permit myself to become worried over getting up a function. I go into it heart and soul, but I do not, for one fraction of a minute, deprive myself of the good time.
 "I enjoy entertaining because I do not work myself up into a fever over the question of whether everything is going off all right."

 DOUBLE WEDDING PLANS

Motor Car Driver Killed on Speedway Was Engaged to Be Married Next Month.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass, Aug. 22.—(Special)—The death of William Bourque of this city in the automobile races at Indianapolis on Thursday means giving up of a double wedding ceremony which was planned for Sept. 14.

On that date Mr. Bourque was to have married Miss Alexandria Bolvin of West Springfield, and two other friends, Prosper Dufresne and Miss Eugenie Perent, also were to be married.

Bourque had promised his fiancée to give up racing after he had made a try for the Vanderbilt cup this fall.

Harry Holcomb, who was killed with Bourque, was buried today, the funeral being held at the Methodist Church in Granville. The funeral of Bourque will be held tomorrow. The bodies on their arrival from the West last night were met by a delegation of 300 employes of the Knox Automobile Company and escorted to their home. The special car was filled with flowers. Fully 5,000 people were at the railroad station.

 Fall to Note Approach and Are Mangled.

ZIONSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 22.—Curd Conrad and wife, near Big Springs, five miles northeast of here, were instantly killed about 10 o'clock this morning when a buggy in which they were riding was struck by a south-bound T. H., I. & E. traction car.

They failed to see the approach of the car, which struck the buggy broadside.
