The various committees are fast preparing for the national motorcycle meet to be held here, August 10 to 14, inclusive.
With the meet only a month away the committees are whipping into shape the details of entertainment. The local club has a membership of one hundred, and each member has constituted himself a committee of one to see that the reputation of Indianapolis is upheld.

The meet will open on Tuesday. On Wednesday afternoon the endurance riders will arrive from Cleveland, O. They will start from Cleveland on Tuesday and cover the 361.4 miles to Indianapolis on Tuesday and Wednesday. On Wednesday afternoon there will be an informal reception and luncheon at the Indiana Motorcycle Club, 444 West Vermont street.
The women attending the convention will be shown every courtesy while here.
Thursday morning they will be taken for auto rides about Indianapolis.

Track Events on Thursday.

On Thursday morning the first of the track events will take place. This will be the economy contest. Each contestant will be furnished with a stipulated quantity of gasoline. The rider making the
