AUTO CLUB LIST GROWING.

Campaign for Members Relaxes Until After Races.

The campaign for members in the newly organized Indianapolis Auto and Aero Club continues to be waged with the usual spirit of these men. At present the entire list lacks considerable of being at the high mark anticipated, but the rush of business among this class of men at this season has handicapped their devoting very much time. Up to now almost every one of the men making application has done so voluntarily and because he realized the benefits of such a club. Charles A. Bookwalter, president, has been out of the city almost all of the week and next week he expects to personally engineer a whirlwind search for the membership.

Many inquiries have been received by the secretary from men who have been unable to join because of the prohibition that all the joining will be restricted to one of the members and all other inquiries have been
