

While the... at the completion of flights.

Indianapolis News, June 18, 1910

Brookins in Record-Breaking Flight

The above picture shows aviator Walter S. Brookins in his record-breaking altitude flight over the Indianapolis motor speedway yesterday. The machine is about as far removed from the ground as it would be possible for a camera to catch it.

... must expect during the season to get players... in the major... some quality, and... any that would... are some young... let go, but they... players we could... clubs for half... magnates of the... same probably... have been back-... must go out and... league clubs, the... magnates are doing... as minor leaguers... the small leagues... have to go out or... the best players... are doing, and... That seems to... hat is the policy... follow out in the... wait for the big... choice talent and... bid just as high... ers and take our... men drafted at... the major leagues... one of the men... but no more... voiced by sev-... the association... at there will be... e free players of... the end of the

Features Ball Games

... final innings and... 5: The Mud Hens... the first inning on... er drove in six of

... tly responsible for... ville, 6 to 5. The... runners off at the... base. Minneapolis... and two errors in... f five runs. Halla... after in the ninth... led with a clean less outlook for years, but all they can hope for is to beat division clubs.

... m and Columbus... The ex-Cleveland... rs only four hits... win for Liebhardt... e wild, Columbus... itches.

GOOD PROGRAM AT LEBANON

Motorcycle and Horse Races, Feast All-Star Bill.

The Merchants' Association of Lebanon has planned an all-star bill in sporting events for July 4, to be held in Lebanon. There will be an parade on the morning of the day, picnic at the fair ground in the afternoon and a great display of fireworks from the courthouse tower at night.

A feature of the afternoon will be the motorcycle races, provided by the Indiana Motorcycle Club of Lebanon. The races will start at 1 o'clock. A program for the races has not yet been completed, but it is thought that events will be on the card. There will be for Boone county riders, and another for I. M. C. members. A race program will be published later. The motorcycle races will be followed by horse races. It is stated that the one-half-mile dirt track is in excellent condition.

The I. M. C. members will meet at the clubhouse, in West Vermont, at 8 a. m. All motorcyclists are invited to meet at the clubhouse and ride to Lebanon.

Princeton Takes Final

NEW YORK, June 18.—Princeton won the deciding game of their series with Yale at the American League stadium yesterday. The largest crowd ever turned out to see a college football game was present. Princeton hit the ball better than Yale, the former getting four hits while Yale collected but one. Score:

Yale	.....	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Princeton	.....	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0
Batteries—Tomers, Yrebas and V. White and Darrow—Stenberg.													