the college take charge of tennis this year and manage the schedule for that team as it does for the other athletic organizations. In the past the team has had to attend to the drawing of its schedule and had to pay its own expenses. It will now probably be put on the same basis as the other teams.

earred race will start at 10 o'clock in the morning at the Navy Yard and be rowed down stream, finishing at the railroad bridge. As soon after the four-oared race as practical the freshman eights will row over the same two-mile course, starting at the Navy Yard and finishing at the railroad bridge.
