

Rinnenstein Tumbles to High Ladder in Wholesale House.

Rinnenstein, a clerk in the case of the Mooney-Mueller, suffered injuries in a fall Monday morning that may ing to reach an article on ourselves when the sliding ladder stood broke from its fasten- w him to the floor. en to St. Vincent's hospital, said he had a small chance

TE IN BED; MEN ARE CALLED

Within One Week By Nocturnal Smoke ring. Is Small.

habit. k, rooming at 623 N. Senate latest to have acquired it. nbed smoking a cigarette Sunday morning. He dozed fell from his mouth. When e was surrounded by smoke

partment men threw the bed of the window and prevented s was the third fire within d by cigarette smokers hav- while in bed.

COLUMBUS, Ind., May 30.—The remains of the late ex-Congressman, Jesse Overstreet, were brought here from Indianapolis Sunday and buried in the city cemetery on the Crump lot, among the departed relatives of Mrs. Overstreet. The funeral car was met by the Scottish Rites Masons. In the city cemetery are buried three other ex-congressmen, viz.: William Mered, Nathaniel T. Carr and George W. Cooper.

CONDITION OF JOHN NEWBY IS IMPROVED

Considerable improvement was reported Monday morning in the condition of John Newby, the aged father of A. C. Newby, vice president of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, who was stricken while attending the races Saturday afternoon.

He was taken to the home of his son, at 4020 N. Meridian street in an ambulance and physicians believe he will recover.

Can't afford Handicaps

Change from coffee to

POSTUM

You'll know

"There's a Reason"

was early damaged by fire. In the basement. The dama

Is It Not Worth

The Safety

AMERICAN

What the

It was saved
It has put the
It has put wi done much toward have considered lo
It has placed
that of any public
It offers to y
sonal advantage.

Directors Edward
Fred M.
25 South Per