AUTO DRIVERS PRACTICE ON LOWELL RACE COURSE

BARNEY OLDFIELD PERFORMS FOR GERMAN COUNT.

SPILLS MARK SPEED TRIALS

LOWELL, Mass., September 4.—There was something doing over the Merrimac Valley automobile race course yesterday with about twenty race drivers trying out their machines to the limit of their speed capacity. All the racing men have an attack of speed fever, and this was responsible for a Chalmers-Detroit, driven by Frank Gehaw, locking wheels with the Knox, driven by Fred Belcher, while going at a lively clip, and a Maxwell, driven by Sickenger, attempted to make the Varnum avenue turn into Dunbar avenue at a terrific rate of speed. The Maxwell turned over and Sickenger popped out of the machine, landing in a soft spot on the Cummings farm. No great damage was done to the driver or the machine.
A bona fide German count is looking after the Benz car, driven by Barney Oldfield. His name is Count von Ganeth.
All of the important details of the big road race have been worked out by Fred Wagner, the official starter, and Frank B. Hower, chairman of the contest board of the American Automobile Association.
