SPEEDWAY DIRECTOR GIVES PROMISE OF NOTED PILOTS

E. A. Moross Leaves for Atlanta Auto Race Meeting to Book Winners for Indianapolis Events.

With promise of bringing back with him names of many of the world's best pilots at the steering wheel as contestants here E. A. Moross, director of events at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, left yesterday for Atlanta, where the big Southern race meet- ing opens today. Atlanta is a magnet for many of the big ones, and the Speedway representative will be in touch with them all. Incentive of a new and greater Speedway course, the result of the most elaborate en- gineering feat in roadway making of recent years, will bring the majority of the great drivers here without hesitation. The addi- tional offer of large prizes, trophies and cash, will leave little for the pilots to do but enter in the lists. After the Atlanta visit the Speedway director will visit Orville Wright, either at Montgomery or Simms Sta- tion, and arrange further details for the June aviation meeting at the Indianapolis course.

KLING SIGNS HIS CONTRACT.

Joins Cubs for Three Years at Salary of $4,500 Annually.

CHICAGO, May 4.—John Kling signed a three-year contract with the Chicago Na- tional League Baseball Club in President C. W. Murphy's office here late today. "Sub- ject to the terms of the national commis- sion's ruling," Mr. Murphy said. This means that Kling will get a salary of $4,500 for the season. In addition, Kling was given a check for his share of the 1935 prize money that President Murphy presented to players at the close of the 1934 season.
