Honks Heard Among the Auto Show Fans

Dealers spent the afternoon, when away from the contests, taking the men visitors over the city for exhibition drives. On every main highway, in all directions, and in confusing numbers, autos were seen all day long, flying hither and thither, heralded by the "honks" and trailed by the gasoline odor and smoke.

Plans for the parade today are complete. Expectations are hitched to the stars, and, if the weather continues fair and the crowds keep swelling, the parade will be witnessed by as large a crowd as ever saw an automobile show on earth.

W. D. Ryan of New York is in this city in the interests of the Thomas car. He is trying to get the New York-Seattle endurance run to pass through Indianapolis, and says he believes he will succeed.

Auto fans were informed yesterday that when the new motor speedway is completed the National Company will have it for its exclusive use to pull off a big ten-day stunt. The purpose is to make trips of 1,000 miles a day for ten consecutive days. So far it has not been determined definitely what model of cars will be started on these journeys.

Manager Losey of the Buick-Losey Company expects to be in direct telegraphic communication today with the Daytona, Fla., races. These beach races are attracting the attention of the auto fans the world over. Punch will be served at the Losey garage today.

Compliments on the Sunday automobile edition of The Star are heard on every hand among auto dealers. The Cole Carriage Company has expressed appreciation for the interest the paper has taken in this enterprise. This company is enjoying a flying start for the auto show week. Crowds of visitors have visited the headquarters every day. Several sales have been contracted.

Manager Frank Staley received a new Model C Studebaker touring car Monday for opening week. The car is a handsome one and is attracting considerable attention at 400 North Capitol avenue.

The R. J. Irwin Company has been entertaining hosts every day during the show at its factory. Every person who visits is shown through the entire plant. Explanations are given concerning how the Irwin auto body plant works and why it has become an industry in itself. During afternoon with growing demands for some

The R. J. Irwin Company has been entertaining hosts every day during the show at its factory. Every person who visits is shown through the entire plant. Explanations are given concerning how the Irwin auto tops and wind shields are made. The manufacturing of auto tops and wind shields has become an industry in itself, having advanced with growing demands for autos.

Frank Staley will move the Studebaker Bros. Indianapolis Company into its temporary quarters at the corner of Capitol avenue and Vermont street April 1, where it will remain until the new Studebaker building on North Pennsylvania street is finished.

S. C. Bayer, assistant sales manager of the Mercedes Motor Car Company of the city, Wis., is in Indianapolis this week looking for local representatives. The Mercedes-Benz Company, which makes the most expensive of the cars in the world, has opened all the stores throughout the country, but feels that the business should be in the hands of men who are familiar with the car and the people who are interested in it. Mr. Bayer will be in the city for a few days and will be glad to see anyone who is interested in the car.
