

the championship through the indignity of the giant center, the diminutive forward, the boys. If they play tomorrow for a scarlet victory lessened.

An injury to his knee, all this fall, Vaughan has been playing a fast game out last week with the team and it was not in the contest when the Michigan Catholics at South having lost games to and Wabash in succession. Vaughan are both with the team and it is at one of them, and they will be seen when the start of tomorrow. Dame plays Rose Polyaute.

He announces that the good condition for the will put up the fight of w night.

CHANGES SURE.

es Committee will e the Game.

ary 31.—Coach A. ne University of Chi- predicted a whirlwind opinion regarding foot- at two weeks. Accord- leader's information about the country, the r will undergo a rad- ately after the meet- l rules committee in nday and Saturday. assurances from the rball officials of the York sessions will re- the game to a state able to the anti-foot-

all Results

stalled and by Wednesday Superintendent L. L. Fest will be ready to receive the exhibits.

The work of erecting the long board walk, which has been christened "limousine lane" because of its inclosed comfort, between the Coliseum and First Regiment armory, will begin on Thursday. This tunnel-like structure solves the problem of handling a large crowd paying only one admission to visit both buildings.

ENTRIES FOR MARDI GRAS MEET

Speed Carnival at New Orleans Holds Attention This Week.

NEW ORLEANS, January 31.—Entries for the Mardi Gras automobile speed carnival, to be held at New Orleans, February 5 and 6, were announced by Homer George, contest manager, today, as follows:

George Robertson, Simplex; Ralph de Palma, Fiat; Barney Oldfield, Benz and Knox; Ben Kirscher, Darracq; Leigh Lynch, Jackson; J. E. Delaney, Jackson; George Clark, Jackson; S. L. Speer, Jackson; Fred Shaw, Knox; J. S. Sellers, Oakland; David Besuden, of Cincinnati, Buick; Walter Donnelly, of Cincinnati, Packard; John Walker, Buick; Frank Honey, National; E. J. Thurber, Chalmers-Detroit; Fred Hueck, of Chicago, in Miss Mabelle McCane's Chalmers-Detroit, and Tony Monteleon, Thomas.

In addition to the contests for the world's professional records, three $500 prizes have been donated for amateur races.

NOTRE DAME STAR TO BOSTON

Bill Burke will Get Chance in National League.

BOSTON, January 31.—The Boston Nationals will give Bill Burke, the young Notre Dame twirler, a tryout. Burke pitched for the Lynn club last season under the name of Conway, and for that reason is said to have been expelled from Notre Dame.