

Another event that promises to be of great interest is the fifty-mile profession-home plate and was run into. The bones protruded through the flesh.

FAVORITE GETS IN RACE

JOE DAWSON.

The city's popular racing favorite, Smiling Joe Dawson, winner of the 1912 speedway championship, will again be seen in this year's contest, arrangements to this effect having been concluded this morning between himself and E. H. Delling, owner and entrant of the Deltal, which the latter is barred from driving on the ground of inexperience by a ruling of the A. A. A. contest board. Nor will Joe have a mechanical lemon to handle, as the Deltal is as pretty a job as has ever been seen on a race track. With a good mount and his well-known courage, Dawson can be expected to furnish as many thrills to the sensation-hungry public as ever.
