

CROWDS POURING IN FOR THE BIG RACE

Railway Men Expect More Than Last Year If Weather Is Good.

GREAT ACTIVITY AT HOTELS

Many Special Trains On Steam Roads and Extra Equipment On Traction Lines—Police Plans.

Speed enthusiasts were arriving in Indianapolis from all parts of the country under Railway traffic was heavy, and hotels are scenes of great activity, the streets were crowded, busy travelers in great numbers were arriving in numbers by way of every pipe into the city, the banks of the river were ever present, and the end of the season of speedway souvenirs was being met nearly every corner in the Indianapolis market.

Reports of the railway men estimated that the crowd would exceed that of last year. If the weather tomorrow should be favorable the favorable weather conditions despite the traffic which comes from a belt within a hundred miles or so. The Indianapolis men are sure the traffic from beyond the borders of Indiana will go considerably ahead of that of previous years.

Added Equipment.

At the railway offices every quarter of an hour saw additional telegrams received telling of added equipment that would be put on the trains into Indianapolis tonight and tomorrow morning.

The first speedway special came into the city early over the Pennsylvania lines from Pittsburgh. It was the Pittsburgh special consisting of eight Pullman coaches. At about the same time a New York Central train brought into Indianapolis four Pullman sleepers, carrying a speedway party from Detroit. Some of the regular trains were carrying extra equipment. Officer Fisher, station master at the Union station, said the Indianapolis traffic was heavy during all the morning hours and the busy throngs that poured there was through the station late in his statement.

Numerous Special Trains.

Nearly all the numerous special trains were scheduled to arrive after midnight tonight. Special was to follow special in

News Speedway Extras

Tomorrow the annual 500-mile Automobile race will be run at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. THE NEWS, as for several years past, will have a force of trained writers, photographers and artists on the scene to depict the story from start to finish, making it possible to publish a story up to the minute throughout the day. THE NEWS'S regular editions will contain the story up to press-time and in case of accidents or fatalities, extra editions will be issued, as may be warranted throughout the day.

On account of the morning baseball games over the country THE NEWS will issue a Sporting Extra at noon, containing complete results of the morning ball games, and an account of the Speedway race, up to the time of going to press. This edition will be printed on white paper and will sell for 2c a copy.

When the winner in the Automobile race crosses the tape THE NEWS will issue a Speedway Extra, printed on white paper, price 1c. As soon as possible, after all the drivers remaining in the race cross the finish line, THE NEWS will print a Final Speedway Extra, giving the names of those who finish, in their proper order. This edition will contain the whole story from beginning to end and will be devoted almost exclusively to the big Speedway race. This edition will also contain the complete results of morning and evening baseball games, printed on white paper, price 1c.

The Evening Baseball edition will be printed, as usual, on pink paper, price 1c, but it will not contain the story of the Speedway race.
