

CROWDS POURING IN FOR THE BIG RACE

As Day Men Expect More Than
Last Year If Weather
Is Good.

GREAT ACTIVITY AT HOTELS

Many Special Trains On Steam Roads
and Extra Equipment On Traction Lines—Police Plans.

Speed enthusiasts were arriving in Indianapolis from all points of the compass today. Railway traffic was heavy; the hotels are scenes of great activity; the streets were crowded; dusty travelers in dusty cars were arriving in numbers by way of every pike into the city; the honk of the horns was ever present, and the cry of the vendor of speedway souvenirs was heard on nearly every corner in the business district.

Some of the railways then estimated that the crowd would exceed that of last year. If the weather tomorrow should be favorable, the traffic which comes from a belt within a hundred miles or so. The indications are that the traffic from beyond the borders of Indiana will go considerably ahead of that of previous years.

Added Equipment.

At the railway offices every quarter of an hour saw additional telegrams received, telling of added equipment that would be put on the trains into Indianapolis tonight and tomorrow morning.

The first speedway special came into the city early over the Pennsylvania lines from Pittsburg. It was the Pittsburg Fast special, consisting of eight Pullman sleepers. At about the same time, a New York Central train brought into Indianapolis four extra Pullman sleepers, containing a speedway party from Detroit. Some of the regular trains were carrying extra equipment. Omar Fisher, station master at the union station, said the incoming traffic was heavy during all the morning hours, and the busy throngs that pushed their way through the station bore out his statement.

Numerous Special Trains.

Nearly all the numerous special trains were scheduled to arrive after midnight tonight. Special was to follow special in

News Speedway Extras

Tomorrow the annual 500-mile Automobile race will be run at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. THE NEWS, as for several years past, will have a force of trained writers, photographers and artists on the scene to depict the story from start to finish, making it possible to publish a story up to the minute throughout the day. THE NEWS'S regular editions will contain the story up to press-time and in case of accidents or fatalities, extra editions will be issued, as may be warranted throughout the day.

On account of the morning baseball games over the country THE NEWS will issue a Sporting Extra at noon, containing complete results of the morning ball games, and an account of the Speedway race, up to the time of going to press. This edition will be printed on white paper and will sell for 2c a copy.

When the winner in the Automobile race crosses the tape THE NEWS will issue a Speedway Extra, printed on white paper, price 1c. As soon as possible, after all the drivers remaining in the race cross the finish line, THE NEWS will print a Final Speedway Extra, giving the names of those who finish, in their proper order. This edition will contain the whole story from beginning to end and will be devoted almost exclusively to the big Speedway race. This edition will also contain the complete results of morning and evening baseball games, printed on white paper, price 1c.

The Evening Baseball edition will be printed, as usual, on pink paper, price 1c, but it will not contain the story of the Speedway race.

TARIFF FIGHT WILSON IS

Senate Finance C
Him All Fun
Will Stay

MANY MINOR

President Expresses
About Lobbying
though Publicity

The Indianapolis

WASHINGTON, May 2.—Members of the senate who saw the President that he has won his fight along the general house bill. The bill as to the senate by the will carry a good man not one of them will members of the legislative committee is going to indent and the house on and on the textile section is every assurance, the formed today, that the jority in the senate will bill as it is reported.

During the last two lobbyists have been to appear that Senator T would vote against the not in favor of free a three-year period, but out a statement today that his attitude has b and that he would vote

Only Two Doubt

As the situation now two Democratic senate will refuse to vote for also told the President denunciation of the lobby effect. The lobbyists close their offices here home, although a good are still waiting around they may yet have accomplished something to the legislation.

The particular objection members of the finance President today was sent to the elimination of the bill which provided discrimination in favor brought to this con-

CROWDS POURING IN FOR THE BIG RACE

Railway Men Expect More Than
Last Year If Weather
Is Good.

GREAT ACTIVITY AT HOTELS

Many Special Trains On Steam Roads
and Extra Equipment On Trac-
tion Lines—Police Plans.

Speed enthusiasts were arriving in Indianapolis from all parts of the country under Railway traffic was heavy, and there are scenes of great activity, the streets were crowded, busy travelers in great numbers were arriving in numbers by way of every pipe into the city, the banks of the river were ever present, and the air of the center of speedway souvenirs was heard on nearly every corner in the downtown district.

Some of the railway men estimated that the crowd would exceed that of last year if the weather tomorrow should be favorable. The weather conditions depend on the traffic which comes from a belt within a hundred miles or so. The Indianapolis men expect the traffic from beyond the borders of Indiana will go considerably ahead of that of previous years.

Added Equipment.

At the railroad offices every quarter of an hour saw additional telegrams received, telling of added equipment that would be put on the trains into Indianapolis tonight and tomorrow morning.

The first speedway special came into the city early over the Pennsylvania lines from Pittsburgh. It was the Pittsburgh Pullman special, consisting of eight Pullman coaches. At about the same time a New York Central train brought into Indianapolis four Pullman sleepers, carrying a speedway party from Detroit. Some of the regular trains were carrying extra equipment. Officer Fisher, station master at the Union station, said the incoming traffic was heavy during all the morning hours, and the busy throngs that passed there was through the station late in the afternoon.

Numerous Special Trains.

Nearly all the numerous special trains were scheduled to arrive after midnight tonight. Special was to follow special in

News Speedway Extras

Tomorrow the annual 500-mile Automobile race will be run at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. THE NEWS, as for several years past, will have a force of trained writers, photographers and artists on the scene to depict the story from start to finish, making it possible to publish a story up to the minute throughout the day. THE NEWS'S regular editions will contain the story up to press-time and in case of accidents or fatalities, extra editions will be issued, as may be warranted throughout the day.

On account of the morning baseball games over the country THE NEWS will issue a Sporting Extra at noon, containing complete results of the morning ball games, and an account of the Speedway race, up to the time of going to press. This edition will be printed on white paper and will sell for 2c a copy.

When the winner in the Automobile race crosses the tape THE NEWS will issue a Speedway Extra, printed on white paper, price 1c. As soon as possible, after all the drivers remaining in the race cross the finish line, THE NEWS will print a Final Speedway Extra, giving the names of those who finish, in their proper order. This edition will contain the whole story from beginning to end and will be devoted almost exclusively to the big Speedway race. This edition will also contain the complete results of morning and evening baseball games, printed on white paper, price 1c.

The Evening Baseball edition will be printed, as usual, on pink paper, price 1c, but it will not contain the story of the Speedway race.

TARIFF FIGHT WILSON IS

Senate Finance C
Him All Fun
Will Stay

MANY MINOR

President Expresses
About Lobby In
though Publicity

The Indianapolis

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Members of the Senate who saw the President today were surprised to find him looking so well. He had a good breakfast and a good lunch, and was in good spirits. He was seen in the White House today, and was in good spirits. He was seen in the White House today, and was in good spirits.

During the last few months, the President has been in good spirits. He has been in good spirits. He has been in good spirits. He has been in good spirits.

Only Two Doubt

Only two doubt the President's health. The President's health is good. The President's health is good. The President's health is good. The President's health is good.

CROWDS POURING IN FOR THE BIG RACE

Railway Men Expect More Than Last Year if Weather Is Good.

GREAT ACTIVITY AT HOTELS

Many Special Trains On Steam Roads and Extra Equipment On Trac- tion Lines—Police Plans.

Speed enthusiasts were arriving in Indianapolis from all parts of the country today. Railway traffic was heavy; the hotels are scenes of great activity; the streets were crowded; dusty travelers in heavy coats were arriving in numbers by way of every pipe into the city; the honk of the horns was ever present, and the cry of the vendor of speedway souvenirs was heard on nearly every corner in the business district.

Some of the railway men estimated that the crowd would exceed that of last year, if the weather tomorrow should be favorable. On friendly weather conditions depend the traffic which comes from a belt within a hundred miles or so. The indications are that the traffic from beyond the borders of Indiana will go considerably ahead of that of previous years.

Added Equipment.

At the railway offices every quarter of an hour saw additional telegrams received, telling of added equipment that would be put on the trains into Indianapolis tonight and tomorrow morning.

The first speedway special came into the city early over the Pennsylvania lines from Pittsburg. It was the Pittsburg Fast special, consisting of eight Pullman coaches. At about the same time, a New York Central train brought into Indianapolis four extra Pullman sleepers, containing a speedway party from Detroit. Some of the regular trains were carrying extra equipment. Omer Fisher, station master at the union station, said the incoming traffic was heavy during all the morning hours, and the busy throngs that pushed their way through the station bore out his statement.

Numerous Special Trains.

Nearly all the numerous special trains were scheduled to arrive after midnight tonight. Special was to follow special in

News Speedway Extras

Tomorrow the annual 500-mile Automobile race will be run at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway. THE NEWS, as for several years past, will have a force of trained writers, photographers and artists on the scene to depict the story from start to finish, making it possible to publish a story up to the minute throughout the day. THE NEWS'S regular editions will contain the story up to press-time and in case of accidents or fatalities, extra editions will be issued, as may be warranted throughout the day.

On account of the morning baseball games over the country THE NEWS will issue a Sporting Extra at noon, containing complete results of the morning ball games, and an account of the Speedway race, up to the time of going to press. This edition will be printed on white paper and will sell for 2c a copy.

When the winner in the Automobile race crosses the tape THE NEWS will issue a Speedway Extra, printed on white paper, price 1c. As soon as possible, after all the drivers remaining in the race cross the finish line, THE NEWS will print a Final Speedway Extra, giving the names of those who finish, in their proper order. This edition will contain the whole story from beginning to end and will be devoted almost exclusively to the big Speedway race. This edition will also contain the complete results of morning and evening baseball games, printed on white paper, price 1c.

The Evening Baseball edition will be printed, as usual, on pink paper, price 1c, but it will not contain the story of the Speedway race.

TARIFF FIGHT WILSON IS

Senate Finance O
Him All Fun
Will Stay

MANY MINOR

President Expresses
About Lobby In
though Publicity

The Indianapolis

WASHINGTON, May 15.—Members of the senate who saw the President that he has won his position along the general house bill. The bill as to the senate by the will carry a good man not one of them will members of the legislative committee is going to president and the house on and on the textile section every assurance, the formed today, that the jority in the senate will bill as it is reported.

During the last two lobbyists have been to appear that Senator T would vote against the not in favor of free a three-year period, but out a statement today that his attitude has b and that he would vote

Only Two Doubt

As the situation now two Democratic senate will refuse to vote for also told the President denunciation of the lobby effect. The lobbyists close their offices here home, although a good are still waiting around they may yet have accomplished something to the legislation.

The particular objection members of the finance President today was sent to the elimination of the bill which provided discrimination in favor brought to this