Ty Cobb Could Draw Only $10 a Week in Case of Injury

LANSING Mich., May 15.—Should Ty Cobb, world's champion batsman and star player of the Detroit baseball team, be injured while under contract with President Navin, of the ligers, he would be entitled to only $10 a week compensation. entitled to only $10 a week compensation, according to information received here. President Navin has notified the industrial board of his intention to place all his players under the provisions of the state workmen's compensation law.

Cobb is supposed to draw a salary of about $2,000 a month or $500 d week. If injured he ordinarily would receive his full salary while on the bench. But under the state law Cobb's salary would not be paid.

The law provides that when an employe is disabled he must be paid "an amount equal to one half his weekly wage, not to exceed $10 a week."

The first appearance on the speedway yesterday of Wilcox and his Indianapolis-made Gray Fox, shown in the above photograph, was the signal for applause among the hundreds of his friends who lined the track. It was thought at first that Cokey would let his mount out immediately. After a few laps, however, it was discovered that he was mercly attempting to work in his motor. Wilcox expressed himself as highly elated with the car's performance, as no excessive heat was evident at any of the friction points or the radiator, at the conclusion of the trial. In appearance and construction his machine resembles very much the Pope-Hartfords which formerly raced at the speedway. The chief differences are that a lighter rear axis and frame are being used bringing the total weight of the car well below twenty-five hundred pounds. The Popes always totaled approximately thirty-five hundred. It is thought that this weight reduction will make the machine much faster than any of its pradecessors, a speed of 110 miles an hour being considered perfectly within the limits of reason. After Wilcox fnishes the tuning up and adjustment of his craft, its performances on the speedway will be watched with much interest. This is especially the case because of the many adherents he has locally. The brushes he will have with his former teammates, Herr and Mers, are expected to exceed any others in their fascination, as the three of them are all Indianapolis boys, with the same circle of friends and inconsideration, at which the others would be guests of honor. above photograph, was above photograph, was the signal for applause among the hundreds

Advance photographs of Goux and Zuccarell, the drivers of the Feugest team had engendered this belief that they were dark and swarthy. Their appearance on their arrival in the city yesterday belief such an impression. Goux particularly is the very antithesis of the southern European, being as pink cheeked and fair as a girl Zuccarell, though of stockia build, is no less distinguished for the delicacy of this complexion.

Both look as it they had been fed on French pastry all their lives. Their eyes fairly sparkle with animation, while when they got on the subject of recing they become so excited they gan barely control themselves. In education and breeding they are numbered among the
