

HAS HORDE OF SUPPORTERS

HENDERSON RACER, BILLY KNIPPER AT WHEEL.

Racing fans at the speedway were surprised to see the Henderson, with which Billy Knipper carried out such fancy capers during his last appearance on the oval, out again for work either today or tomorrow. It will be an enthusiastic horde of admirers which will greet its second trial, for the car has made good beyond a doubt. Its speed is surprising, and its stamina is unquestioned, the reputation of its motor designer, Duesenberg, being sufficient guarantee in that respect. For riding quality it is as smooth as glass, its rear three-quarter elliptic springs, a distinctive feature, allowing it to glide over the bumps in easy fashion. If it does not finish in the money, there will be a sadly disappointed lot of experts in attendance at the race.
