

PILOT TO WEAR C. A. C. COLORS

THEODORE PILETTE.

After having spent a few days in Chicago, Theodore Pilette, driver of the foreign Mercedes-Knight which is entered in the next five-hundred-mile race, set sail for Indianapolis today, being expected to arrive in this city tonight. During his stay in the Windy City he was the guest of C. E. Patterson, owner and entrant of the car which he will pilot, and the Chicago Automobile Club. Before his departure the latter organization bestowed its colors upon him to wear during the contest. Pilette is a Belgian, claiming Brussels as his native city. His connection with the Mercedes-Knight entry is due to the fact that he is agent for the car in his native land. In appearance and deportment he is said to be very quiet and unassuming. He neither drinks nor smokes, a trait unusual among Belgians. If he is successful in getting his car out of bond in the morning he expects to take it to the track tomorrow afternoon. That it will make a good showing its 1912 performances, chief among which was a second it captured in the Belgian Grand Prix, are held to guarantee.
