JACK TOWER,
Driver Mason No. 6.

... millions. There is one pensioner of the revolutionary war still on the rolls. Quite a number of the war of 1812. A much larger number of the Black Hawk, Seminole and other Indian wars. A large number charged to the Mexican war, and a rapidly increasing list on account of the Spanish war.

said. "we doubt not but that the verdict would have been in favor of the south. But that question was decided by a presumptuous appeal to swordcraft.

The southern people, he said, bore their defeat manfully and set their faces toward an era of reconstruction. Were that time great cities have sprung up
