OLDFIELD IS RESTING FROM HARD SEASON

Famous Death Defying Auto Driver Recuperates After Strenuous Pace of Record Breaking.

MAKES 142 MILES AN HOUR

CHICAGO, May 19.—Barney Oldfield is in Chicago recuperating, so he says. The famous pilot of the modern juggernauts arrived yesterday from Denver, where he stopped off to break a few track records after a series of record-breaking stunts on the Pacific coast. Oldfield has been dubbed the "speed king" since last March when he sent his "Blitzen" Benz over the Daytona, Fla., beach course at the rate of 142 miles an hour. Then Barney covered a mile on the one-mile circular board track at Los Angeles in 36.22 seconds, closely following that performance with a mile over the Cheyenne speedway in 36 seconds flat.

"I am in Chicago for a few days just to rest up after a hard season's racing," said Barney last night. "I have been going at top speed for a year and have been under a great nervous strain all the while. I hope to race in or near Chicago during the summer."

Oldfield's Benz is housed in a local garage, the first time it has ever been in Chicago.
