

PICKPOCKETS IN CROWD MAKE FEW BIG HAULS

PLYMOUTH MAN LOSES DIAMOND
WHILE BUYING POP.

PURSE SNATCHERS GET BUSY

Pickpockets worked in the crowds at the speedway and the union station yesterday, and city detectives have reports of at least six "leathers lifted" by skillful crooks of the professional class. The largest single robbery was that reported by Ernest Paulsen, a visitor from Mexico. The theft took place at the speedway. Paulsen lost $500. The other thefts, however, were of considerable amounts, while there were several robberies for "the little things."

A negro purse snatcher attacked women. Detectives who worked in the crowds arrested half a dozen suspects, all of whom will be released as there is no evidence against them.

A jam on the rear platform of a South Meridian street car, last night, cost E. Herwitz, 417 Broadway, $5 in money and a check on a Cincinnati (O.) bank for $22.18. Herwitz reported the loss to the police. He said he did not miss his purse until he was nearly home, when he recalled that several men had crowded him roughly on the South Meridian street car.

Gets Diamond; Leaves Fingerprints.

William Everly, of Plymouth, reported to the detective department, last night, that he was robbed of a diamond shirt-stud, valued at $175, at the speedway, yesterday afternoon. According to Mr. Everly, he stood up in his seat and ordered two bottles of pop, and while reaching over to pay for the pop somebody loosened the diamond pin and escaped. The thief's fingerprints were visible on Everly's shirt front.

E. W. Arbogast, of Anderson, telegraphed police headquarters from his home last night that while he was in the city yesterday afternoon he was robbed of a pocketbook containing two indorsed checks, one for $250 and the other for $50, and $5 in money. The pocketbook was taken from a hip pocket and was not missed until he arrived at home.

E. Brown, of Cincinnati, O., reported that a small book, which contained $15, and which he was carrying in a hip pocket, was stolen at the union station.

Colored Man Snatches Purse.

A negro purse snatcher attacked Miss Mamie Wachstetter, 514 North Blackford street; Miss Jennie Wands, 437 Blake street, and a woman who refused to tell the police her name or address, last night. Miss Wachstetter and Miss Wands said they were walking west in Michigan street and noticed two colored men who had been following them from Indiana avenue. When they reached Toledo street one of the colored men ran between them, and, seizing Miss Wachstetter by an arm, jerked from her hand a silver mesh bag. A pair of white silk

FINISHED WELL IN BIG R

RALPH MULFORD,
Lozier.

gloves the
the other thief. The
the young
him for you
disappeared.

woman carried in
was taken by the ed man turned to said, "I'll catch a remark he also contained".

Pur

At excite purse sn
when a wo
name or ad
book contain in change while she was sit

awed the second of the evening.
used to give her
bed of a pocket
book contain
in change while
she was sit

the Marion
Club buildin
She sat in a chair in front of the building to rest for a few minutes, when a negro approached. He started to pass and thrust out his hand and seized the pocketbook. A short struggle followed, and the noise and a scream for help attracted the attention of several young men inside the Marion Club. The negro ran and was followed by three young men, whose cry of "Stop thief" continued several squares. Near the corner of Vermont and Bird streets, the purse snatcher climbed a fence, and bicyclists Schindgen and Viles, who investigated, were unable to find any further trace of the man.

Continued fr

at the speedway tw employers he would drive consistlty w
chances that chara
former races.

He said if the oth
risk their lives eve
let them win. Merz
the end, and there
when he seemed to driving consistently and he had less tri almost any other dr

Howard Wilcox, a tional No. 21, fin thirteenth place, a
only counted the fi
stopped the race whe home last night that while he was in the city yesterday afternoon he was robbed of a pocketbook containing two indorsed checks, one for $25 and the other for $6, and $3 in money. The pocketbook was taken from a hip pocket and was not missed until he arrived at home.

B. Brown, of Cincinnati, O., reported that a small book, which contained $15, and which he was carrying in a hip pocket, was stolen at the union station.

Colored Man Snatches Purse.

A negro purse snatcher attacked Miss Mamie Wachstetter, 514 North Blackford street; Miss Jendie Wanda, 437 Blake street, and a woman who refused to tell the police her name or address, last night. Miss Wachstetter and Miss Wanda said they were walking west in Michigan street and noticed two colored men who had been following them from Indiana avenue. When they reached Toledo street one of the colored men ran between them, and seizing Miss Wachstetter by an arm, jerked from her hand a silver mesh bag. A pair of white silk gloves the other thief. The young man turned to him for help and disappeared.

Purse

An excited

purse and

when a wo

name or ad

book contain

she was sit

of the Marion

Club buildin

She sat in a chair in front of the building to rest for a few minutes, when a negro approached. He started to pass and thrust out his hand and seized the pocketbook. A short struggle followed, and the noise and a scream for help attracted the attention of several young men inside the Marion Club.

The negro ran and was followed by three young men whose cries of "Stop thief"

continued several squares. Near the corner of Vermont and Bird streets, the purse snatcher climbed a fence, and bicyclemen Schlangen and Giles, who investigated, were unable to find any further trace of the man.

woman carried in
was taken by the man turned to
said. "I'll catch
him for you."
disappeared.

To Thief.

Wed the second

of the evening,

used to give her

bed of a pocket-

n change, while

she was sit

of the Marion

Club buildin

She sat in a chair in front of the building to rest for a few minutes, when a negro approached. He started to pass

and thrust out his hand and seized the

pocketbook. A short struggle followed, and the noise and a scream

for help attracted the attention of several young men inside the Marion Club.

The negro ran and was followed by three

young men whose cries of "Stop thief"

continued several squares. Near the corner of Vermont and Bird streets, the

purse snatcher climbed a fence, and bi-

cyclemen Schlangen and Giles, who investigated, were unable to find any

further trace of the man.

HARROUN ONLY SURE OF IT

Continued from P

at the speedway two year employers he would enter drive consistently without chances that characterize former races.

He said if the other drivers risk their lives every race to let them win. Merz follo-the end, and there was when he seemed to be driving consistently he and he had less trouble than almost any other driver.

Howard Wilcox, at the National No. 21, finished thirteenth place, although only counted the first ten.
He stopped the race when the Wiley, however, was crossed the line a few too late. After saw the Johnny Aitken, the driver, went 280 miles a good showing when a ring rod under his car came off.

Steady Grind Wins

The steady grind told ery of many of the racers more than on the drivers by the fact that only about forty cars that started the finish. However, in 100 miles, the officials were keep a correct record of winners and the eleven cars in the race, and con-lost eight of those that finished, but still in the run.

An example of the ten displayed was the case who stuck gamely to the anding that he was in car. It was generally red King had more to other driver. This due to Burman's ta full speed. Frequent reached from a whe
the rest of the time stopping at his pit
and again burm
is when tires burst shaken. Once on the south to down the incli
continued the r minus a tire car

-Five Cars in
hundred miles in the race and no exceptions. A checkered flag Harroun. The cars
Lester Dawson's Marion
Pint. The Palms

Dresses

$1.95

Up

Lingerie, silk, linen, gingham, lawn and marquisette, handsomely trimmed; by far the choicest collection of pretty summer dresses to be found anywhere; all sizes.

We Fit Big Women
We Fit Little Women

KISER'S
FASHIONABLE DRESSES AND UNDERWEAR