EVANSVILLE WINS GAME 8-7

"Tots" Threaten to Walk Off With Contest in Fifth When Five Runs Are Scored, but "Little Evvas" Do Almost the Same Thing.

CENTRAL LEAGUE STANDING.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., May 29.—Terre Haute made the locals fight for every run today and the tallenders by a brilliant spurt in the fifth almost landed the contest. Evansville finally won by a score of 8 to 7. Except in the fifth inning, when both teams slugged the ball in old-time fashion, the struggle was resolute with pretty fielding. Malloy was relieved in the fifth by Long, who finished in good form. Score: Evansville, 8; Terre Haute, 7. Batteries—Malloy, Long and Fuller; Britten and Weaver. Umpire—Rigler.

WHEELING, 4; CANTON, 1. CANTON, O., May 29.—The champions came to Canton today and defeated the Reds by a score of 4 to 1 in a game which was marred with errors. The pitching of "Spitball" Robertson, the tall twirler of West Virginia, was a puzzle to the local watchmakers and they made only four hits. Score: Wheeling, 4; Canton, 1. Batteries—Kline and Ernst; Robertson and Schriver. Umpire—Wheelock.

SPRINGFIELD, 7; DAYTON, 2. SPRINGFIELD, O., May 29.—Springfield had little trouble with Dayton today and won easily by a score of 7 to 2. Hammond, who began the game for the locals, was obliged to retire from the mound and was succeeded by Alberts, the former Indianapolis twirler, who pitched his first game for the Vets, was hit hard and was not given the support conducive to the winning of a game. Springfield, 7; Dayton, 2. Batteries—Hammond, Alberts and Clark; Halla and McDonald. Umpire—Effeiter.

GRAND RAPIDS, 6; SOUTH BEND, 5. GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., May 29.—Grand Rapids won the first game of the series today, defeating South Bend by a score of 6 to 5 in one of the most exciting contests ever played here. South Bend threatened to win out, getting five runs in a bunch in the third inning when hits were bunched off Miller. Except in that one inning Miller was an enigma to the Granites, and the total sum of their hits was five. Grand Rapids gets in a tie for first place. Score: Grand Rapids, 6; South Bend, 5.

PHILADELPHIA, 5; BOSTON, 1. BOSTON, Mass., May 29.—Loose fielding by the home team gave Philadelphia the victory today 5 to 1. Neither team batted effectively, but the visitors' hits were more timely. Score: Philadelphia, 5; Boston, 1.
