President Defines Spirit of America

Memorial Day Speaker at Arlington National Cemetery Calls upon Naturalized Citizens to Obey Nation's Call and Defends His Proposal for Alliance of Nations to Prevent War—“America First in Every Purpose”

May 30—President Wilson today at the Memorial day address at Arlington National cemetery which he defined the spirit of America as the determination to set themselves up as the champions of the nation's honor and to defend it by every means necessary to preserve peace. He spoke at the Arlington National cemetery before a gathering made up largely of naturalized citizens who applauded his address.

“America First”

While President Wilson had no special message for Americans of foreign birth, he expected them to be proud of their own country. He said that in every man's heart there is a sense of our own history and our own destiny. He said that we must guard ourselves against the spirit of aggression which has been the cause of our present troubles. He said that we must be ready to fight against any aggression whether it comes from within or without. He said that we must guard ourselves against the spirit of aggression which has been the cause of our present troubles.

No Entangling Alliance

President Wilson reminded George Washington when he said that we must guard ourselves against entangling alliances. He said that we must not allow ourselves to be drawn into any alliance which would involve us in a war which we do not wish to fight. He said that we must guard ourselves against the spirit of aggression which has been the cause of our present troubles.

VOTE FOR 50 SUBMARINES INSTEAD OF 20

Republican Efforts to Enlarge Building Program Get Results in House Vote

Washington, May 30—Determined Republican efforts to enlarge the building program of the naval appropriation bill resulted today in the adoption by the House, sitting as a committee of the whole, of an amendment increasing the number of submarines from 20 to 50. Proposals to provide for six battle cruisers instead of five and to add two dreadnoughts and two scout cruisers to the program were defeated after a lively fight. In order to finish consideration of the bill by the time fixed 4 o'clock Friday afternoon the House had a three-hour session instead of recessing over Memorial day as usual.

Lower Branch as Committee of Whole Defeats Proposals to Add Another Battle Cruiser

The vote on increasing the submarines was 114 to 94. Seventeen Democrats voted for it and 10 Republicans opposing the additional sea boats would be the cost of defense type 27 of which already were provided for by the bill. Many members who have been urging that it would be better to expend money on submarines than on battleships rallied to the support of the amendment after voting against the battleship proposal.

Germany's Refusal of Poland Proposals Causes No Surprise

London, May 30—Berlin advises in limiting that the German government will not accept Great Britain's counter proposals for the relief of Poland were not unexpected by the persons interested in the plan. Several offers to undertake the work have originated in Norway and Sweden but both the British and the German governments have indicated a preference to have the work done by the American Commission for the Relief of Belgium in the event of an agreement such work would be entirely supervisory as according to the original agreement Germany undertook to appropriate $5,000,000 monthly to purchase food as well as to provide ships for its transportation. Therefore it would not be necessary to make an appeal to the outside world for funds to feed the Poles.
