WISCONSIN WORKS OUT UNDER COVER

CRIMSON COACHES EXPRESS FEAR LACK OF PUNT PRACTICE WILL HARM.

Camp Randall is covered with five inches of snow, forcing varsity to take to pavilion; Will practice on St. Paul Hotel roof garden.

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 16.—There was no let up to the bitter cold at Camp Randall on Wednesday, and Coach Withington was again forced to work his squad indoors. The Badger camp is still covered with about five inches of snow, and all hopes of holding an outdoor workout this week for the game between Wisconsin and Minnesota on Saturday have been abandoned by the Wisconsin coaching staff.

When the Badgers get to St. Paul, where they will arrive Friday morning, they may be able to get some outdoor work, but most of their practice will be held on the roof garden of the St. Paul hotel. This means that the whole week of preparation for the Gopher battle will have been made indoors by the Badger football squad.

Just what effect this will have upon the team is slightly worrying to the coaches, but they will take no chances with the snow covered field, which is bad for eyes, as well as ankles. The forward passing and punting practice is likely to suffer the most, and in these two departments it is believed that Wisconsin will be at a disadvantage on Saturday from lack of practice. Taylor and Simpson are getting no practice at the boating end of the game and Harold Olson, who might be counted on to score a drop should the game be close enough and the opportunity present itself, is getting out of practice, as there are no goal posts in the university stock pavilion where the indoor workouts are held.

Coach Withington, however, has had a tackling dummy outfit rigged up in the pavilion, so that his squad will not be weak in this factor of the game. In fact, it is a safe prediction that unless the Badgers find themselves thoroughly outclassed, they will perform some deadly tackling feats before the record crowd that is promised for the annual battle with the Gophers. A deadly tackle is one of the features of the Harvard defense this year and it was this factor that brought about Harvard's victory over Princeton a week ago. Coach Withington keeps in pretty close touch with what is going on down at Cambridge and has spent considerable time during the last week in coaching his eleven in this respect.

ELEVENTH HOUR SHIFTS IN GOPHER LINE SHOW COACHES ARE WORRIED

TOWNLEY, UTILITY LINEMAN, MAY START AT CENTER AGAINST CRIMSON.

Dr. Williams Sends Norsemen Through Dummy Practice; Gridiron Being Protected by Covering of Hay.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 16.—That all is not running as smoothly as the coaches would like in the Gopher camp is apparent by the eleventh hour changes in the line-up. Big Jack Townley, the utility lineman of the squad, who has seen service at both tackle and guard, may start at center Saturday. Townley has been used at the pivotal position for two nights, Jack Hansen having been sent to the side lines.

Whether Dr. Williams is merely working Townley to provide a capable substitute in case Hansen should be hurt or is dissatisfied with the latter's playing is not known. Hansen is one of the best passers in the west, and under the complicated plays used by the Gophers it is no easy task playing center. Townley, however, has had experience, for he played the position for a time in 1915.

Con Eklund, who, like Townley, has been tried at various positions, again has taken possession of the right guard berth. His hold on the position depends upon the length of service Townley sees at center. Paul Flynn and Parker Anderson are having a merry battle for the right end berth and it is a toss-up as to who will win. Buckley is ill with stomach trouble and probable is lost to the team for the season.

Wednesday's practice, like that of Tuesday was cut short, the regulars being excused early. Dummy scrimmage was indulged in, the coach not caring to take chances of injuries on the hard ground. The covering of hay has protected the gridiron fairly well, but there is frost in the ground and if the sun should come out strong Saturday morning the field is likely to be slippery.

RIPON AND LAWRENCE TO FIGHT FOR STATE TITLE

RIPON, Wis., Nov. 16.—The game between Ripon and Lawrence, which will take place on the local field on Saturday, will be the deciding factor in the state college championship, and in addition to this the strong rivalry existing between the schools insures a battle royal. On the face of the dope, Ripon appears to have the edge, they having been undefeated by a Wisconsin team, while Lawrence was only able to tie Carroll on the home lot. The Appleton aggregation is coming with a special train of rooters. Ingalls field was covered with a foot of snow Wednesday morning, and a small army of freshmen and others were busily engaged in removing it Wednesday afternoon. The coming game is the one subject uppermost at the college, and in a large portion of the city.

When the pictures were being taken for "Secret Orders," which will be shown at the Bijou next week some funny things happened.

In one of the camp scenes the top sergeant gave Fred Norton an old letter and a drum and said: "Here, Fred, get busy and write a letter or something of that sort and make this thing look more natural than the real thing." Fred took the pencil and while the operator turned the crank for his benefit he screwed his tongue into his cheek and wrote vigorously. After the scene, he handed the paper back to the sergeant with these words on it: "Dear Mabel, These hadn't any sgeretts in Mexico. Please send me one."

It isn't everybody that can be promoted from first sergeant to a brigadier general in one day but Wallace was. He cut off his precious chevrons and sewed on a pair of paper stars that made him look like Puck, with the whiskers off. He bowed a horse and after getting on the wrong side, led "his" troops forth to the field of "battle." After he had done his full duty as a high officer of the general staff, he was asked how he liked it. "Oh, I would a darn sight rather be a Mexican villain any day than a 'jigadier brinner," and most of the boys that he put on extra duty at Camp Douglas for seven hours for being ten seconds late at reveille roll call, will agree with him that he ought to have his wish.

SEIDELL GIVES FEED TO HIS CHAMPS ELECT

OTHERWISE HAPPY GATHERING SHOWS 'NERVES' WHEN THE SEIDELL CAPTAIN THROWS DOWN GAUNTLET TO BATTERY.

Joe Seidell gave a dinner for his victorious football team at his buffet on Main street Wednesday night, which was attended by about 30 young men and women, all interested in the local football map. Besides the members of the Seidell team, there were present several members of the Battery C team and one man from the Eagle Athletic club.

After the dinner, Capt. Stauss, of the Seidells was called upon for a speech, and standing on a table, he expressed his appreciation of the splendid spirit and ability the team has displayed, ending with the assertion that he felt positive the champions would be able to whip the Maple Leafs, the only remaining title contenders. It was unfortunate that the Seidell captain spoke of a game between the amateur champions and the Battery C team, for he catapulted into the formerly happy gathering a rather distasteful discussion, in which several members of both teams joined, at times heatedly. There was no real ill feeling shown, but because of the arguments it is possible there will be a game between the two teams arranged, which would be a rather sad ending to an otherwise prosperous football season. It would simply mean that the Seidells would have a perfect record of victories broken by an overwhelming score. It is to be hoped that last night was the end of any such talk.

BONEHEADS

B. F. W. GRIFFITH

Every year about this time we have read about John Anton bringing home a deer or a bear. We have always thought John one of the best little hunters Racine sends out. Our reason for thinking he is the fact he always has one or two carcasses hanging out in front of the place, and we always thought he did the dirty work, but one of our confidential men came to us today and said: "John received a telegram today from a certain man in the northern part of the state. It said: 'Have captured your bear for this year; come up and shoot him.' John sent a telegram back saying: 'Must be assured that the bear is securely chained and in a cage before I shoot.'"

Speaking about ancient history, we heard a good one on a well known Elk who bet quite a sum of money on Hughes. He was down at the club and when the returns started to come in showing Hughes running true to form, he went into the tap room and invited everyone to have a soda—and then repeated the invitation a number of times. He is a fellow who doesn't care any more for a nickel than he does for his right eye and when he showed this sudden outburst, some of the regular fellows ran for shelter, but he explained it when he said that he was sure of winning a nice pot. He went on to tell where he was going to place all the money. He told about every place but the right one, because he lost. It is said that he won't come out of his shell for another four years, so here goes boys.

Bobby Griffith who has at times been called "Col. Hughes," is to leave us shortly, not because he lost on the election, but because he lost his temper. He is going down in Indiana, where he will play polo with the Hugheses.

BATTERY C MAY BRING SOUTH BEND TEAM HERE

Battery C football team has practically completed arrangements to bring one of America's representative teams to this city next Sunday. Negotiations have been pending for some time between the local management and South Bend, Ind., and within the last 48 hours matters have been brought to a head by the offer the Racine players made to the South Bend team for a game here next Sunday. Battery C has offered South Bend $400 for the game, besides paying their expenses. This would mean that the game would have to draw at least 2,000 fans to enable the eleven to meet expenses, but the local management is willing to gamble on the sort of game the public would expect from a team such as the Hoosier aggregation, to draw the gate.

JOE WELLING DISPOSES OF WILLIE SCHAEFFER IN TEN ROUNDS IN GOTHAM

BOY, WHO FIGHTS BAMMER HERE TUESDAY ADDS ANOTHER KNOCKOUT TO RECORD.

Joe Dory in Better Shape Now Than For Mike Hirsch Battle; Meets His Best Opponent Tuesday; Graham Has Lots of Speed, and a Wallop.

Joe Welling, who fights here next Tuesday night, added another knockout to his record Saturday night by disposing of Willie Schaeffer in 19 rounds before the Broadway Sporting club. Welling placed a short stiff right to the chin of Mr. Schaeffer and that sent the ambitions of the receiver into the wastebasket.

Welling is reported to be in wonderful condition for his contest with Ever Hammer and more than willing to wipe out the win Ever has over him by a decisive victory in his Racine arena. The Chicagoan has been going along at a terrific speed since he invaded the east and claims he is confident of stopping the bristling blonde before the end of the tenth snaps.

The Wonderfully Willing Welling arrived in Chicago Wednesday and there has already started training for his fight with Hammer at O'Connell's gymnasium.

Dory in Fine Shape

Joe Dory, who fights in the semi wind-up with Dan Gallagher, about the best opponent the halfback has ever been up against is in better condition right now than he was up to one night before his last fight here, which was with Mike Hirsch. Dory is not cutting loose with the wallop that stopped his last opponent, but nevertheless is giving his sparring partner, Sailor Clickner, a rising young heavy, all he can manage and it is a fortunate thing for Joe that the sailor is willing.

Mitchell Wagons	1	2	.333

By winning tonight's game the Mitchell Wagons have a chance to tie the Motors for second place in the polo league race. It will be the same Red lineup that appeared in the last Motor game, but it is probable that the Wagons will be still more strengthened in tonight's game.

The Reds will battle with all their ability to get a firm clutch on the first division and a win for them would send them into a clinch with the league-leading Racine Rubbers, and at the same time give the Grays a bit of company down at the bottom of the heap.

Several bets have been placed of late on the outcome of the race, but as yet there have been no odds announced. According to Fritz Reichert, the manager of the Rubbers, the "Wagons have a splendid chance to get up in the world tonight. The Green manager says he is rather expecting to see the third-place boys hand the Reds a trimming."

Young Wagner Taking His Coming Ring Debut In Serious Manner

"I guess Harry is taking this pretty seriously," said John Wagner, the Racine boxing promoter, when seen at his Sixth street cafe Thursday morning. "For a while I thought he'd back out of the match he has agreed to enter, but I'm becoming convinced he means what he says, and that you'll find him there at the finish. I'll stick to my end."

The above was in reference to the battle Harry Wagner, a son of the matchmaker, will engage in as the windup attraction to the show to be presented to the local fight fans following the one in which Hammer and Welling will furnish the feature attraction.

MATTY McCUE DECIDES IN FAVOR OF EAU CLAIRE

RACINE BATTLE'S FURST EASTERN FIGHT TO BE AT NEW HAVEN, CONN., BEFORE THE ROYAL A. C.

Matty McCue has practically decided to cast aside the Marinette offer of a fight and accept the Eau Claire engagement with Teddy Hayes. McCue, fighting on a percentage drawing card in the latter named town as he made a distinct hit with the fans of that city.

Immediately following the announcement that McCue was to start east in the near future came an offer to the Racine battler from T. S. Andrews, offering him an Australian engagement, which the Dane turned down, preferring to make the eastern trip, another offer having arrived the same day from an eastern promoter, offering him a bout in New Haven, Conn., before the Royal Athletic Club, an arena that draws heavily on the Manhattan patronage.

Tom Nugent is the promoter of the New Haven club and has offered to do anything possible for Matty in the way of an eastern start. The Racine battler will, however, be stacked up against a mighty good boy, whose name will not be announced until later, at his first appearance on the Atlantic sea-board.

RACINE FIGHTER TO GET $1,000 A FIGHT FOR HIS AUSTRALIAN BATTLES

Matty Smith arrived back in town from Milwaukee Wednesday to attend the banquet for Seidell given in honor of the new state champs, and while here showed the contents of a contract he has signed with the Australian management. The paper calls for $1,000 per fight and all expenses. Tomorrow night a farewell dinner is to be given for the fighter by his friends, to which all fight fans are invited, it being possible to make table arrangements with John Wagner at his Sixth street cafe, where the dinner is to be served.

Management of Santa Monica Race Preparing to Handle Crowd of 150,000 Spectators; Grand Prize Race Saturday.

SANTA MONICA, Calif., Nov. 16.—Twenty-one racing cars, primed for speed, were given their final tuning up Wednesday preparatory to the Vanderbilt race here tomorrow. All eyes were turned on the "Big Three," Resta, Aitkin and Rickenbacher. Dario Resta, champion of England, nursed his French Peugeot around the eight-mile triangle with an ease and quiet that stamped him a gentle driver, while Rickenbacher thundered his Duesenberg around for the fastest time ever made on the course.

Resta Rules Favorite

Resta is favorite. Rickenbacher and Aitkin also are well backed, while Pullen, Mercer, and Cooper, Stutz, are considered likely dark horses.

Managers of the races are preparing for 150,000 spectators for each of the big events. The 204 mile Vanderbilt will start at noon tomorrow and the 400-mile Grand Prize at 11 a. m. on Saturday.

TIGERS TO SCRIMMAGE; READY FOR YALE GAME

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 16.—Changing his plans in order to get a better line on his backfield men, Coach John Rush planned to send the Princeton varsity eleven through another scrimmage late today in preparation for the Yale football game on Saturday. The crisp weather today helped to put the men on edge.

All the injured players are rounding into condition rapidly and Coach Rush will have plenty good men on hand to be put into the game if regulars become disabled. There still is some doubt whether Dave Tibbott will get into the contest. He is practicing kick kicking, but is not yet in condition to get into scrimmage.
