Company, under the name of Buick-Losey Company, R. H. Losey, manager. in addition to managing this branch is liquidating the business of the Boyd Automobile Company.

Until recently he has been connected with the Buick people at Buffalo, N. Y., and says that he sees no reason why Indianapolis should not prove to be one of the bast belling points for Buick cars in this country.

They now have on exhibition their 1968 Buick cars, which consist of six models, ranging in price from $900 to $3,500 f. o. b. factory. They will also carry a complete line of Buick parts, so that customers will not experience delay in receiving any pasts they may need.
