CUBS WIN AND LOSE IN TWIN BILL YESTERDAY

Vaughn Bested by George But Douglas Beats Northrup; Cards Win Two From Phillies.

Chicago, Aug. 19.—Cubs and Braves halved yesterday's double bill by twin scores of 3 to 1, the enemy winning the first encounter and the home boys the second.

A pair of sidewheelers, Vaughn and George, pitched the first game and the latter set the Cubs down with six hits, no two of which coagulated in the same inning.

Douglas and Northrup spied against each other in the second battle and Phil held the enemy to six hits.

The gloom of defeat in the first game was deepened by the fact Hollocher did not get a safe hit, thereby terminating his run of 20 consecutive games and making it impossible for him to beat Wheat's record until after the war. Hollocher came across with two solid bumps in the second game, but could not solve George's left handed puzzle in the first.

Extra! Extra! They Have Discovered Lajoie's Weakness

Chicago, Aug. 19.—Larry Lajoie's short stay in the American association resulted in the discovery of the batting weakness, a secret that had remained unsolved for the duration of the slugger's long career in the majors. It was a Minneapolis pitcher who got the dope on Larry, according to an umpire who was telling President Hickey about it recently. During a game between Indianapolis and the Millers, this pitcher came to the bench after an inning and in a matter of fact told his mates that he had found Lajoie's weakness. After the excitement had been quelled, during which every other pitcher had eagerly demanded the solution of the mystery, the mentioned pitcher blandly remarked: "Pitch the ball high and behind him."

Ralph De Palma in Auto Records

New York, Aug. 19.—Ralph De Palma, the daring automobile driver, won the international sweepstakes contest at Sheepshead bay speedway Saturday by capturing all five heats. Ralph Mulford was second and Dario Resta third. In four of the five heats De Palma established world records. The time of the fifth race, which was for 50 miles, was 27:29.1. The old record was 28:04.62, and was made by Resta on the same track last year. The point score for the sweepstakes was: De Palma 30, Mulford 22, Resta 19, Arthur Duray 9. De Palma established a world's record for two miles. In the first race, his time was 1:38.10. He established another world's record by winning the second race for 10 miles in 5:23.8. The third race for 20 miles also was won by De Palma, time 1:51:6. The record is 10:50:2, made by De Palma last July. The Italian driver likewise won the fourth race for 30 miles, and again broke a world's record. His time was 10:31:2.

'Prince' Hal Is in Bad Once More

HAL CHASE.

Hal Chase, first sacker of the Cincinnati Reds and one of the greatest fielders who ever drew on a glove, has been suspended for indifferent playing and also faces a charge of gambling on the results of games in which he played. Chase admits he frequently placed bets on horse races, but declares he is innocent of having gambled on ball games. He is to have a hearing soon.

Extending the draft age limit to 45 opens new possibilities for the heavy weight fighters, in the matter of that world's championship battle in which Billy Ward is always the popular central figure. Jess will be included in the new limits. Altho he has public contributions to a wild west circus owned by Willard, has made them independent. It is therefore more than probable that Jess' draft board will assign him to some occupation more essential than sending his circus money. It is a possibility that Jess will enter some form of war work, in which event he would be allowed to fight for his title without interference, according to precedent already established. It goes without saying, however, that Jess has been out of England, where no championship bouts are allowed except those between men in the service. They even put a heavy foot down on fights between English champions in war work and American fighters who were not.

Easy for the Freshies. Unless Yale and other eastern universities modify their rules barring freshmen from competition on the varsity teams, the sad state of affairs will exist in which the first year men will be able to spank the university eleven. Yale now expects to have both a varsity and freshmen eleven. The varsity was recently cleaned of upper class men and it is doubtful if more than about 600 report for further military and scholastic education. Many of the boys who have been out of the country have been admitted as normal or even greater and the prospects are that a first year class will number next fall. The total number may exceed the enrollment of the other three classes put together, with every chance that the incoming boys will have better football quality than the upper classmen remaining in school.

BRINGING UP FATHER

GOOD SCORES ARE TOTALED AT VETERANS' SHOOT

A. F. Helfer Was Winner of First Trophy—James Ford and J. C. Hartman Tie, 90 Out of 100.

Attendance at the old timers' trap shoot held at Byrnes park Saturday afternoon was cut down owing to rain. The event was staged at 3 o'clock and some of the veterans who were in their prime a quarter of a century ago showed the young bucks that they are still able to turn the trick. Two trophies, now on display at Selbert & Webber's jewelry store, were hung up, the first of which was awarded to the shooter making the highest score in the first 50 targets shot at. A. F. Helfer won with 40.

The second trophy was offered for the highest score in a 100-bird event. Nic Webber was high man, but was not eligible on account of being a manufacturer's representative. It was announced at the close that John Hartman was high with 90 and Jim Ford a close second with 89. The score sheets were turned over to Mr. Hartman and his eagle eye detected today that Jim is credited with 90 breaks also. A good opportunity was offered to pull a little camouflage and cop the pewter but trapshooters are above such things so Jim and John have a tie to shoot off. The last time they locked horns John won with 25 straight with Jim hot on his trail with 23 after dropping the first two. Jim will come back with blood in his eye and it should be some race.

Benny Kauff Makes Good as a Soldier

Columbus, O., Aug. 19.—Benny Kauff already has begun to rise in the ranks of Uncle Sam's army. Word comes from Camp Sherman that he has been made a corporal and that he is performing his duties in faultless style. In a recent letter to John McGraw, Benny wrote that the drills come easy to him and that he was making good progress. He added that he hopes to win a commission before the war is over. Benny had had no military training prior to his entrance into the army, but he ought to make a good noncom even at this time, as he is already immensely popular with his comrades and he has entered upon his new profession with boundless enthusiasm.

GAME CALLED OFF. The Moose baseball team did not go to Cedar Rapids yesterday to tackle a strong semi-pro club of that city. The game was called off because of rain. It is probably that the two teams will clash in Cedar Rapids next Sunday.

COP NABS SON AS LOAFER. Edward Larkin, eighteen, of No. 235 Hoyt street, Brooklyn, N. Y., was arrested by his father, Policeman Larkin of Traffic D, charged with violating the Anti-Loafing Law.

Young Larkin, a chauffeur, had been out of employment for several weeks. Papa Larkin said he was tired of seeing his son hanging around the house and decided to look him up. Magistrate Folwell in the Fifth Avenue court held the young man in $500 bail for special sessions.

NEXT! Madge—Of course he's fat and bald and not very young, but he adores you. Marjorie—I haven't turned him down altogether; I've just put him in my deferred classification.—Life.

JUST the GIST and EST of it

THE MAILED FIST. Jess Willard was a fighting man of more or less renown. He looked the famous "black and tan." And won the champion's crown. He gathered up a bunch of kale and loughit himself a farm. Where he could safely fight by mail and never come to harm.

He has the necessary skill and never ducks a match. Mail orders he will always fill with neatness and dispatch. He's licked a score of famous men from early morn till night. He'll reign for many years unless he gets the writer's cramp.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

In fifty-nine well-chosen words The Cowboy wins a fight; And then he tends his flock and herds who were in their prime a quarter of a century ago showed the young bucks that they are still able to turn the trick. Two trophies, now on display at Selbert & Webber's jewelry store, were hung up, the first of which was awarded to the shooter making the highest score in the first 50 targets shot at. A. F. Helfer won with 40.

The boys over there have gone in for trapshooting. They get a flock of huns in a trap and shoot 'em.

Jess Willard says he is willing to box Jack Dempsey six rounds, but no more on account of his lack of condition. Don't worry, Jess, if you ever meet Dempsey you won't have to go six rounds.

Will Someone Look Up the Definition of Sanitary? (North English, Ia., Record.)

J. F. Luton has opened a cream station in the south part of the W. H. Hall livery stable. Mr. Luton will keep a clean, sanitary place and will be well fitted to take care of the trade.

J. R. E. says that of course Mr. McCaude would have to select the dearest time of the year to promulgate his order forbidding the sale of liquor on trains.

Why wouldn't it be a good idea to have G. A. R. veterans make up the juries that hear cases of alleged pro-Germans? Justice would be meted out in copious quantities, we predict.

OFFICE LOCALS. There seems to be a letup in the wild war rumors so numerous of late, for which the telephone operator and editorial staff are duly thankful.

A number of members of the editorial and reportorial staff had their hair cut last week. Prices advanced today so you will see that this office is supporting the conservation movement.

Some of the reporters have found it difficult to continue their duties, following publication of the item which originally appeared in a Salt Lake City paper. Such slams are not forgotten easily.

IOWANS AT PIKE BOX AND WRESTLE

Interesting Stunts Do Much to Relieve Drudgery of Daily Routine.

Camp Pike, Ark., Aug. 19.—From wrestling and boxing to acrobatic clown work, the Iowa selectives at Camp Pike are furnishing more than their share of the diversion which makes camp life in the American army today less of a drudgery. Programs given at Camp Pike bear out the assertion.

Features of an entertainment given by enlisted men of the casual companies at the Y. M. C. A. building No. 40 were acrobatic work by Allen Willis of Muscatine, Private Worden of the same place and Private Snyder of Sioux City. The men are with the Eighty-second casual company.

Private Willis has appeared in several of the Charley Chaplain comedies and Private Worden has traveled with the Ringling shows as a comedian and clown. Private Snyder kept the immense audience in an uproar with his rapid fire cartoons depicting camp life.

Iowans in Matches. At "Y" building 39, the same evening, Iowa men exhibited some of the intricacies of the manly art of self-defense and also some mat work.

Mike George of Davenport and Young Hackenschmidt, also of Iowa, were meeting all comers on the wrestling mat. And they got away with the decision. Privates Eddie Somers of Muscatine, Military of Humboldt and Berry of Waterloo, were in the sparring exhibitions. Somers, a professional boxer, has been made a temporary boxing instructor in the "Y" 39 area.

Boxing Every Monday. Other Iowans who appeared in gymnastic stunts were Private Tom Yoder of Ottumwa, who boxed Somers; Bledsoe of Davenport, who was thrown in a wrestling match by Berry, and Jack Weimer of Cedar Rapids, who boxed Somers.

Physical Director Wanstaff, who has charge of the athletic work in the area, also hails from Iowa. Hereafter there will be boxing and wrestling exhibitions every Monday night.

Change Site of Howrey Home; Was City Landmark

The B. J. Howrey residence, occupying the entire triangular block bordered by Walnut, Iowa and Pine streets, is being moved from its present site to the first corner to the north of where the hours now stands, and its removal marks the passing of another of Waterloo's oldest landmarks.

The house was built in 1880 by Dr. John G. Bickley, who resided there for 26 years. In 1906 it was sold to George McWilliams, who made it his home until he moved to California in 1913. It was during this time that the famous "Billy" Sunday conducted a whirlwind campaign here. His headquarters were in the house for several weeks while the McWilliams family was in California. The home has been the property of Mr. Howrey since 1912.

Shortly after 1880 Dr. G. G. Bickley, brother of Dr. J. G. Bickley, built a home similar in design and construction at the corner of Fourth street west and Wellington, which was moved to Prospect Hills a few years ago to make room for the Colonial apartments.

No definite plans have been formulated for the utilization of the site, but it is probable that it will eventually be the location of a large, modern apartment building, it being ideally situated for such purpose.

Sugar Shortage Will Continue Several Months

All food administration officials agree that the need for economy in the use of sugar will continue for several months.

At present conservation of sugar is the vital point of the present food supply. Rules have been relaxed as to the amount of flour a consumer may buy, and there has been a lifting of the restriction upon beef consumption.

Destruction of several coastwise ships carrying sugar, by submarines, unexpectedly cut short a contemplated increase in the supply, and canning rules and the household consumption allowance were made tighter.

Food officials say there is enough sugar in the world for everybody, but lack of transportation facilities prevents its being distributed to countries where most needed. No large increase in the domestic supply is looked for until the 100 sugar beet factories begin to turn out this year's crop.

THINGS THEATRICAL HERE AT HOME

"The Blindness of Divorce"—Search of the court records of Reno, Nevada, disclose the startling fact that the families of physicians and surgeons are contributing three times the number of suits for marital separation of any other profession or occupation.

Every man may have a conscience, but the divorce court records show that some leave it at home when they go to business while others leave it at business when they go home. The neglect of modern man for his wife is graphically shown in the William Fox picturization of "The Blindness of Divorce," now playing at the Plaza theatre.

Railway Traffic Again at Normal

Railway traffic resumed its normal schedule this morning. The first Chicago train since Friday night arrived here at noon yesterday over the Illinois Central. It brought the Sunday Chicago papers and an accumulation of two days' mail. The first Chicago train over the Great Western arrived about 5 p. m. yesterday.

The track in the eastern part of the state, which was seriously impaired by the heavy rains of Friday night, has been rebuilt and all rail ways are operating over their own lines as usual.

Saturday at noon the Illinois Central routed a passenger train east to Manchester, thence south to Cedar Rapids and into Chicago over the Northwestern lines. Other east-bound trains were annulled here until yesterday.

Freight trains are operating on regular schedule today. All thru freights delayed here because of track conditions in the east were routed out last night and this morning.
